The New Pie: Modern Techniques for the Classic American Dessert Chris Taylor , Paul M Arguin (Contributor)

Create 75 beautiful and unique pies using traditional techniques and modern tools from a couple who has baked their way to the top.

Get ready for a new, fresh take on baking the ultimate feel-good dessert: pie! In The New Pie, Chris Taylor and Paul Arguin--winners of more than 500 awards for baking (including the 2017 Best of Show Award at the National Pie Championships)--re-examine the wholesome world of pie. Through traditional time-honored techniques, modern cooking methods (like sous vide), innovative flavors (birthday cake; Tahitian pineapple; and mocha "mystery"), and a love for kitchen gadgets (like immersion circulators and silicone texture mats), these legendary competition circuit pie experts reinvent the traditional pastime of pie-making. With step-by-step instructions and playful photography, you'll learn to make groundbreaking creations, including a magnificent Blueberry-Maple Pie with wood-grain lattice, the King Fluffernutter Pie, and a striped chocolate Pie of the Tiger. Whether you are a pie voyeur, new baker, or baking enthusiast you will find inspiration at every turn and pies to satisfy every craving.

Thoughtful and thorough on techniques basic and advanced; I appreciate cookbook authors who provide detailed instruction at the beginning of a book to a new baker and quality recipes to an experienced one.

The recipes go according to plan as well, which seems like it would be automatic with any cookbook, but i assure you it is not.

I'll be happy to add this one to my permanent baking collection right alongside Barenbaum's The Cake Bible and Child's Baking with Julia.

Beautiful photos. Funny (and occasionally sweet, sentimental) pie masters. As someone with limited pie-making experience, the step by step instructions and helpful hints are needed. The rating system (rating ingredients, equipment, and construction by level of difficulty) will help me figure out where to start. I am really excited to try something out!
