Nah inilah jadinya kalau seseorang seperti saya mementingkan cover diatas segalanya. Saya jadi nggak jeli dengan isi dari komik yang panjangnya ada 27 volume ini.

Setelah mencicipi volume 1, bisa dibayangkan betapa besarnya penyesalan sekarang karena baru aja tau kalo komik ini SANGAT BAGUS.

Sasara yang berubah dengan kesadaran sendiri menjadi Tatara, seorang perempuan berumur 16 tahun yang menguatkan diri dengan tujuan membalaskan dendam desanya yang hancur dan kakak serta ayahnya yang mati diakibatkan serangan dari Raja Merah. Sasara hanya bisa menjadi dirinya sendiri saat ia berada di Onsen yang kemudia benar benar tertarik dengan seorang pemuda humoris tapi juga kharismatik dan seenaknya sendiri bernama Shuri. Tipikal kan? Nggak ada yang aneh dari jalan cerita ini. kecuali kalau Shuri ini adalah sang Raja Merah.

Hebatnya lagi yang membuatku sangat sangat kagum, Yumi Tamura menguatkan ikatan mereka tanpa terburu-buru dan alur yang keren, bisa dibuktikan dengan terbongkarnya identitas Shuri sang Raja Merah di buku ke-5.

Tidak perlu ragu lagi, inilah lambang dari cover not worth anything. :D

Synopsis:

Sarasa and Shuri meet in the battlefield, and are devastated to learn one another's true identities. Sarasa runs away to Kazuno, reunites with her mother, and reaffirms the sanctity of love. But what path will she choose now...?

My Thoughts:

This volume is a bit lighter than the last few have been. I was glad for that because things just can't be dark ALL the time. It was so good to see Sarasa with a smile on her face again. And I was happy that she and Shuri both helped each other when you might think both would be too bitter to do so. I'm also glad that Shuri seems to won someone who had every reason to hate him over to his side and that thanks to Sarasa, he's reunited with Nakijin and Yuna.

I really like Kikune's character. I hope to see her again and hopefully, not as an enemy. I really like Ichimatsu as well, he's funny.

I really enjoyed seeing Sarasa dealing a blow to the royal family. Totally made them lose face. Plus, she freed a lot of slaves. It looks like back in Suo, they're rebuilding the city and it's going well. Senju, though, still is out of it. She should have had her baby by now, but I don't know if she can ever let go of her grudge against Tatara. Sakaki is still around, too. It seems that Sarasa wants him to help with his aqueduct that he had began before. Looks like he's working on it in secret, but at least he's working.

However, one of King Ukon's councilors has sent an assassin after Tatara and Kinari the Spider has warned him about it. Will she survive the attempt?
