The Law of Attraction - 5 stars!!

I've always had a thing for lawyer themed books. Probably because I once wanted to be a lawyer and I grew up watching Ally McBeal with my mom, but either way I gravitate to author's like Julie James and now I can add NM Silber to that list! You don't have to be a law fan to enjoy her stories or understand what's going on. She has a fantastic handle on dumbing down law jargon for us non-lawyer plebs.

She also has created a fantastic group of characters that are hilarious and intelligent! It's my favorite combo when reading. Added to that, her characters are sexy. And not in an overt way. It's sexiness without brow beating us. It's romance without throwing a sex scene in every five seconds to say, "See? They have a relationship!" Because that's not a relationship, people. I like my characters to go on dates. I like them to fight about menial crap. I like them to have fun together and be sweet to each other. I love the build up to the first time.

We get all of that with this novel. We even meet the parents! Which is probably one of my favorite parts, at least when they go to meet Gabrielle's family because her grandmother is an absolute head case. Think of the grandmother from Wedding Crashers, but more outspoken and crazy.

I love that we get to see the progression of their love for one another. The first installment in this series is brimming with humor, intelligence, sexiness, sweet moments, and intrigue. I enjoyed myself ever single second! 100% recommend this to everyone!

The Home Court Advantage - 4 Stars!

Ok so we pick up right where we left of in book 1. Can I be honest in saying that I A) didn't know that the second book was going to be about Braden and Gabby and B) don't really think they needed a second book? Let me be clear though, while I do think/thought those things, I still really enjoyed The Home Court Advantage. It had all of the things I really enjoyed from the first installment. Hilarious court cases, fantastic dialogue, witty flirting, steamy sex scenes, and crazy family members. What I enjoyed even more was seeing more of their friends, whom I'm hoping play leading roles in the books to come!

As far as the stalker element goes, it seemed to be overshadowed by everything else in the novel. It just didn't seem like a strong enough storyline, especially since it's what brought on book 2. I kinda didn't care enough about it. I was too interested in everything else that was going on! So if you're one of the people who are reading this series for the mystery (who are you?!), you may be a bit disappointed.

All in all, it was a very enjoyable read. I'm a definite fan of Ms. Silber now. She embodies everything I enjoy in a writer. Fully recommend!

Lawyers in Love Series Books 1 & 2: Law of Attraction and Home Court Advantage by NM Silber Box Set. REVIEW IS FOR BOTH Part of a series. These two should be read together, but the next is a standalone.

I will be reviewing both books together because I got the box set of Law of Attraction and Home Court Advantage, and really, though it's not really a cliffhanger, they do need to be read together. The third in the series, Legal Briefs, can totally be read alone, and I know that many people read it first and loved it. See the full series order here, which includes future books in the series.

I'll be honest here. I picked this up because A) I heard it was funny as hell (it was) B) I heard there was a Jewish character. Since I grew up Jewish and came from a pretty Jewish area, I thought it would be a fun read for me. But you absolutely don't have to be Jewish or even know a Jew to love this book, it was very minor; and C) I haven't read a lawyer book in forever, and they used to be my favorite.

If you like Alice Clayton, Penny Reid, Emma Chase, Janet Evanovich or Tara Sivec, these books will be a win for you. Funny, witty, silly at times, sexy, with lots of banter and smart characters, I really enjoyed this refreshing change from the angst.

Gabrielle Ginsberg was a public defender. From a very successful, happily married family, she was sometimes awkward but oh so relatable. Braden Pierce was an assistant DA (prosecutor) and was a Senator's son. Also from a happy family. It was such a refreshing thing to read about two non-broken characters from good marriages! I honestly can't remember the last time I read about such normal people.

Gabrielle faced Mr. Pierce or his friend in court daily. I really loved reading the silly court cases that started each chapter. (I know that this shit really happens too!) Gabby developed a bit of a crush on the sexy blonde prosecutor after arguing with him daily, even knowing he was a player.

"With him it was always a good clean fight, even if it made me want to be a dirty girl. Battling in court could be pretty stimulating to tell you the truth. Sometimes there's a fine line between pissed off and turned on."

When they got together with a group of lawyers outside of work, Gabrielle finally got up her nerve and did some 'saucy' flirting.

"I couldn't believe that I had actually pulled it off! I had flirted with Braden Pierce. Geek girl had flirted with gorgeous guy, senator's son... I felt mad, bad and dangerous to know! I had a feeling that it would be one of those moments I would relive mentally for years."

I had such a good time reading their negotiations for a date.

"Well, I might possibly be interested, but only if it was like a real dating thing and not just a one nighter with a meal plan."

When they did finally get together, BAM. They were great together. They both knew that this was something special, yet still tried to hold off on the nookie till date three.

"I really need to have some hot sweaty monkey sex with you on Friday. And when I say "some" I mean hours worth. I'm talking getting seriously freaky until we pass out."

I had to include this line because I accidentally texted my son's friend's dad this once (that I wanted to have hot sweaty monkey sex with him) instead of my husband! Talk about awkward and embarrassing!!! Moving on...

When word got out that Braden and Gabby were dating, apparently some people weren't happy about it, and notes and threats started arriving for Gabrielle. Was it someone who wanted Braden for themselves or their daughter? Was it people nervous that the union of two powerful families would change politics? Gabby didn't know. But afraid to worry Braden, at first she investigated with her friends, and in true Lucy and Ethel fashion, it was hysterical.

Not only was this fun, it was hot! Braden and Gabrielle had some really good sex, touched with some humor.

"He sat me down, pushed my back down flat, knelt on the floor in front of me, and hooked my knees over his shoulders. Christ on a cracker! Harvard was going down." (Braden graduated from Harvard, Gabby from Yale)

When it became clear that Gabrielle might be in some danger, her dad asked Braden to buy her a dog. Since her building had a size limit, Braden brought home Bruno, killer chihuahua.

Oh, how I loved this dog! He became one of the gang immediately, and you couldn't help but fall in love with the cutie.

When Law of Attraction (Book 1) ended, it was pretty open. Though Braden and Gabrielle are happy, there is still the mystery of who wants them split up and why. So in Home Court Advantage (Book 2), the whole gang gets together to investigate, and I had a ball reading about it.

Likes:

- I literally laughed out loud at least 20 times.
- Characters were smart, silly, relatable and funny.
- Meeting the family, especial Bubbe (I swear, it was my family!)
- I had a goofy grin all along.
- Each book was on the long side, so together this was a really long juicy book, which is good, because I was having so much fun I didn't want it to end.
- The whole cast of characters. It was like an episode of Friends.
- How easily and quickly the couple got together and knew it was right. It was easy to feel as a reader, and never felt like the relationship was forced. They were perfect for each other.
- The side couples that formed. Great set up for future books.
- Good sex scenes that were very realistic, with some giggles and accidents and even trouble saying the dirty words.
- The funny cases at the beginning of each chapter.
- Bruno! What a great dog.
- It was nice to have a couple of Jewish characters for a change!

Dislikes:

- It tended to go a little over the top at times. I mean there are easier ways of getting a handwriting sample than going undercover to a sex club!
- The author writes like I do. Too many exclamation points. Seriously, it's one of the things I do way too much and I saw it here as well.

Rating: 4.25-4.5 stars. The first book was more like a 4-4.25, and the second was 4.5. Heat rating 4.

I was really able to see the author's growth from the first to the second book. Though the stories tended to be a bit over-the-top at times, that's OK, it is a comedy after all. With a great, big cast of characters that I loved, a bunch of funny situations, and sweet moments, I found myself smiling the whole time. Refreshingly, there was NO ANGST. They were a highly functional couple that just worked perfectly together. I highly recommend picking up this box set, but be prepared to settle in for a nice, long, fun journey with a cast of characters you want to hang with. I can't wait to read Legal Briefs, which I hear is even better!

I loved this series. It's rare to find books that offer just as much comedy relief as it does sexy goodness. The main characters in the story line are very "real", the reason for the air quotes is these characters are relateable. Gabrielle is a strong female lead, she is smart and witty but also very down to earth and quirky. She tends to suffer from diarrhea of the mouth from time to time and isn't embarrassed by being the nut that she is...lol. The second main character Braden, he (like I mentioned before) is one sexy beast of a panty dropper man. He is the perfect mix of alpha male and guy fallen from heaven. believe me when I say this man is HOT! Also has one of the best filthy, panty melting, have your heart go into over drive, gotta hold onto something while you read this book mouths I have every come across. Whoo yea those smut scenes are something else. Even with all the sexiness going on the comedy isn't lost though. I was laughing and busting up throughout the series. The court cases alone had me cracking up. I don't doubt for a minute that those cases could be real and sympathize a little for the lawyers who have to deal with that on the daily (haha). The secondary characters get spotlighted too and I love them just as much as the 2 main characters. Jess the loyal best friend is AMAZING never questions Gabby's crazyness and just goes along. The other 3 men: Cam, Adam, & Mark are very nicely intertwined within the books and add their own comedic relief and support the main story lines well. The ending was awesome and very fitting for the story. As a reader you weren't left wanting or feeling as the story wasn't finished. N.B Sibling did a great job wrapping up the story and making you feel happy at the end of it all (100% complete story no loose ends) At the end you get a little sneak peak at the next book she will be releasing in 2014 "Legal Briefs" which is a story line focused on Adam and Lily from this series which I am excited to read. Believe me when I tell you these two have a great love hate relationship that I cannot wait to see how it develops. side note- there is a scene in book 2 The Home Court Advantage with Adam and Lily (chapter 19) I was dying of laughter, I was laughing so hard that my husband asked me if I was okay because I could get enough air! The animosity between them is also great chemistry, so yea excited for that one Over all great series and theme definitely recommend, I rated them 5 stars because of the perfect balance of Rom & Com and the connection between the main characters is AMAZING.

N.M. Silber has created a great love story and a touch of mystery. What a great combination! Definitely for those over 18! N.M. Silber has created such great leading characters and supporting cast, it is like you are sitting right there with them all the way. I am not one who likes to write spoilers, but will tell you, if you enjoy similar genres, you will love this! I think fans of Janet Evanovich will appreciate these stories, even though they are a little 'steamier' than what Ms. Evanovich writes, they are just as funny.

The Law of Attraction-

Book one brings us Gabrielle Ginsburg and Braden Pierce, lawyers on opposing sides of the courtroom. Gabrielle is enamored by Braden and will often daydream about him while in court. Where this goes is so funny, it had me literally laughing out loud. This book is very hard to put down, but if you have to, it is so easy to get right back into the thick of things.

The Home Court Advantage-

The second book in the series begins right where The Law of Attraction ends. More steamy scenes, more mystery and finally a few answers that you have been looking for.

I, personally, cannot wait to read the next installment of this story. Anxiously waiting.

MELODY says

Need some laughs and some steam? Here you go! The book is HOT and funny as hell! My family thought I might need to up my medication a few times, from my laughing. The book is also very well written and having grown up in the Greater Philadelphia area spot on descriptions of the city. (I'm officially homesick).

Here is the story of a group of wonderfully amusing talented lawyers, Prosecutors and Public Defenders. Gabriella is a young public defender and for the past 6 months she has been lusting after ADA Braden. Will there path to forever go calmly - of course not! But, the trip is fun. The supporting characters are wonderful as well - I hope that we get to see all of them settle down into the sticky sweet love. Their family and friends are a hoot and well who doesn't have a crazy Bubbe in their family? If you like legal romance this will get you there is a lot of courtroom interaction.

Be warned that there is a bit of a mystery cliffhanger so you will want to get into Book 2 quickly. I finished book 1 in a thunderstorm under a bridge to hide from the rain. I think the cop that checked on me thought I was out of my head because of the stupid grin on my face.

In the Second Installment of the Lawyers In Love series - Braden and Gabrielle are now engaged (to the nay sayers - yes you can go from dating to engaged in 6 weeks, I did and have been married almost 30 years.) The stalker is still out there, they are still trying to figure this out, and the supporting cast is still a little bonky. This is what I love about the books. I laughed so much!

They things this group get into are hysterical. If you like legal romance this one is stellar! I often wonder what lawyers are thinking sometimes. I can't wait for the next installment - hopefully, we will get to know and see more of the Scooby Gang find love.

~*~The Law Of Attraction (Lawyers in Love #1): I had the opportunity to be a beta reader for this new book, and I am so glad that I was! This is a must read! It had my laughing out loud to the point where my family was looking at me weird and wanted to know what was so funny. The main characters and their friends are a great group and had me wishing that they were actual people so that I could become their friends. Haha! I loved that there was a little bit of mystery, it made the book even better. The chapters flowed and were well organized. Overall I LOVED this book and CAN'T WAIT to read the next one!

~*~The Home Court Advantage (Lawyers in Love #2): I was given an ARC copy in exchange for an honest review. WOW! Really that's what I thought while reading The Home Court Advantage. I really didn't think the first book, The Law of Attraction, could be out done but it kind of was. I love how Gabrielle and Braden's relationship isn't filled with drama and conflict. You can feel the love they have for one another while reading this book. I love how the author makes you feel like this group of friends are real and that you are part of the group. Love the comedy in this book as well. I was reading part of the book while waiting in a waiting room and laughed out loud and snorted. Very embarrassing but it was worth it because even though this book is a romance it is full of hilarious antics!

Can't wait for more books from N.M. Silber!!!

Book 1 The Law of Attraction

This book is about a public defender and an assistant D. A. who fall in love. She is a public defender who is very attracted to an assistant D. A.. She doesn't want a one nighter and that is all he does. After some friendly flirting at a local lawyer bar. They decide that they will have a go at a real relationship, which turns into love. I loved the characters right away. The book romantic, steamy, and funny all at the same time. They have a whirlwind relationship. I connected with the characters and loved them. They have their ups and downs as with any relationship but come out better on the other end. There is a small cliffhanger at the end but not a really bad one. I can't wait to see what happens in the next book. Which I am going to read right away. The book was very well written and I couldn't put it down once I started reading.

I was given this book in return for an honest review.

5 stars

Book 2 Home Court Advantage

This book picks up right where Laws of Attraction ends. They both feel like they are being followed. Gabby sees someone twice. They are engaged now. Braden is super protective and Gabby. They are in love and can't wait to start their life together. I loved the first book so much and couldn't wait to read this one. It didn't fail. I love how Gabby has all these weird little plans to find out who is following them and why. She refuses to let them change the way she lives her life. Her and Braden get so worked up working on opposite sides of court room. They both want the same, to help people. I really love this series and can't wait to read the next one and find out what happens with the other characters.

I was given this book in return for an honest review.

BOOK ONE:

When I find an author who's writing is similar to J. Daniels and Alice Clayton I obviously need to read the books because I love humor in my books. Braden he's like a horny kid when he's with Gabrielle, "so, would this be a quick grab or prolonged fondle I wonder?" he whispered. "And while we're at it, do I have exclusive access to your a, Gabrielle?" He's really accommodating when it comes to his woman, "don't worry, baby. We'll make sure it fits." He backed me up until my knees hit the edge of the bed." Once Gabrielle gets a taste of Braden the girl can't get enough, "let's have lots and lots of sex. In fact, let's have as much sex as possible." Braden knows how to give his woman a compliment, "he's right though. You do look smokin' hot in that dress, baby, and I'm allowed to ogle you." I enjoyed this book it didn't end in a cliffhanger per say, you just know there's going to be more Braden and Gabrielle on the way."

BOOK TWO:

Braden and Gabrielle are back, and Braden is hornier then ever, "sex. I need sex. I've moved beyond amorous and now I'm really horny. Stage three is physical discomfort and mental anguish. Just letting you know." The boy complained a lot in this book, "I've been really horny for over three house. It's unhealthy." He likes to give his woman a heads up on his plans which is always good in a relationship, "hell, no. I'm going to nail you right there inside the front door." I'm learning real quick that the men in this series have stamina and are always sexually needy which isn't a bad thing, but a tiring one (well for their women anyway).

AMAZING!!!!!!!!!!!!!! I love the heck outta this book. How could I not, amazing sex, witty banter..... seriously amazing friends and family.

WHO ARE THEY?

DAUGHTER))

So Gabby, Braden and the Scooby doo gang (her loving friends) but there heads together to solve the mystery of whose trying to keep the dynamic duo apart. They always seem to be place in so bizarre situation (that makes you chuckle a bit) the most cliché part was, it didn't happen until the wedding day, and you know what... I was disappointed with the ending. Because I think I had wayyyyyyy too of a high expectation for this book. However it was an OKAY read.

What don't believe me? GIVE it a try and you will see.

LOVE IT, LOVE IT I just finish reading this book, and oh yea I love it I had so much fun reading this book, love the characters and love the way the story was told, now I cant wait to read the second book, this is such a sweet love story, I am gone tried to keep this short since I don't want to give anything away.

This is story of Gabrielle and Braden, they are both lawyers, Gabrielle is public defender, and Braden is the assistant district attorney, for the last six month they have been in the same court room, Gabrielle is attractive to him the same for Braden, one Friday night her best friend and roommate Jess, drag her out to a bar for some drink, once they got their they ran into some of the other lawyers, among those was Braden after a few exchange words they when to seat down, and that's when the little flirt notes started, Braden and Gabrielle end up seating at the same table, and end up agreeing to go out the next day, that was the night that change their life, after that first date, they kept spending more time with each other, into they became a couple after Gabrielle met Braden parents, she started to get some threat notes, the question is who send them.

BOOK 2

This book picks right up where the first book ends, (The Law Of Attraction), Braden asked Gabrielle to marry him, now they are engaged and they are happy, but they are still trying to figure out who is sending the threatening notes and following her. The court cases just keeps getting better and funnier, I couldn't stop laughing about it, and when you get to find out who is the stalker, you will be surprise, we get to meet knew characters.

I love how the gang are still together, I love the characters of Mark, Adam, Drew, Beth, Jess, and Cam.

I love the way how Braden and Gabrielle are with each other, and the love that they have for each you could feel it. This is one book that you really need to read, I have to say I'm still laughing, Author N.M. Silber

THANK YOU for this great series and this awesome characters Love it.

Jaime Fiction Fangirls Book Review says

These books are pee my pants hilarious. I loved the courtroom scenes between Gabrielle and Braden and I think I might even have some ab muscles to show for all the laughing that constantly had me doubled over. I mean seriously do people really commit those kinds of crimes and behave that way in court?

The hook-up negotiation at the beginning of TLOA was probably the most clever and outlandish way for a couple to be established that I've ever read. It was great. I love how comfortable the whole group of friends are around each other and how rude & crude they are. I would totally hang with them but I imagine my face would constantly be some shade of red.

I do think that the books could have been condensed to one longer book instead of spread out into two, but the laughs were totally worth it. I should also disclose that I read this series backwards, I started with Legal Briefs and I fell in love with Adam and Lily right away so getting a glimpse into their relationship was one of my favorite parts of THCA. That and the UFO hunting. LOL.

All in all, if you are looking for book that will make you laugh with little to no angst and a lot of steamy sex scenes then I recommend you pick up this boxed set today!

Lawyers in Love (Books 1 & 2 Boxed Set)

By: N.M. Silber

4/5 stars

In book 1, Law of Attraction, we meet Gabrielle (the heroine) and her friend & fellow public defender, Jessica. Then we meet Braden (the hero) and his friend Adam, both of whom are Assistant District Attorneys and his friend Mark, who is also friends with Gabrielle & Jessica because he is a public defense attorney as well.

Gabrielle & Braden do have a whirlwind romance, but there is someone who is determined to not let her achieve happiness in her life. She starts getting somewhat threatening notes advising her to break up with Braden.

But their connection is strong and they are willing to handle anything that is thrown their way in order to stay together and make it work...which isn't all that difficult. But finding out who is behind the notes, does prove to be a difficult task.

In book 2, Home Court Advantage, Braden & Gabrielle are still trying to find out who sent her the threatening letters and who also began stalking her. The group of friends are hilarious with all the time they spend with each other and while they also pursue the clues of the notes & stalker. Which at times, they seem a little ridiculous because they should know how potentially dangerous what they are doing is.

There is the same witty banter & sarcastic humor in this book, as there was in the first one. The court scenes & situations are hilarious. The meeting of the families is another laughable moment and the familial interactions are just as funny.

This book is just as hot, sexy & more adventurous than the first book!

Review ~ Lawyers In Love Series (Books one and two) by NM Silber
4.5 Stars!!!

If you are looking for a witty, funny and sexy book about a group of lawyers you have hit the jackpot! Not sure how I found this little gem, but I'm glad I did.

From the first few pages I was hooked. Gabrielle is my long lost twin I swear! Her character made me laugh and I instantly connected with her because her personality is spot on with mine...add to it a hot Braden and I was wishing I was really her! These two hot lawyers battle it out in the courtroom daily, but neither will admit that they want to pursue each other.

Gabrielle doesn't date...much...at all and Braden is the ultimate one-night stand kinda guy. A night at the bar gives Gabrielle some serious liquid courage to flirt and by the end of the night she has four dates set up with...drumroll please...Braden!

These two are so damn funny and witty inside and out of the courtroom. They are both from powerful families and several people do not want them together for political reasons. While there are some intense moments, this book was lighthearted and completely HOT...I had to step outside in the middle of a Minnesota winter to cool off!

The secondary characters in this book are fan-fricking-tastic! Watch out for the attack dog Bruno...best dog ever!!! I cannot wait for more of them as this series continues!

There is a slight cliffhanger from book one to two, but lucky for you book two is ready and waiting!

The Law of Attraction
(Lawyers in Love Series #1)

Gabriel Ginsberg a public defender with an agenda full of weird, cases, she has to go face to face with her gorgeous opponent council, Mr. Braden Pierce a young D.A, son of Senator Pierce. Gabriel has had a crush on Braden from day one, but she knew he was a womanizer and she had a rule since college no one night stands. So she has kept her crush to herself for the last 6 months.

Braden Pierce, a gorgeous, D.A. He loved his work and also the freedom of not having a girlfriend. He had a really bad experience with his last one so he has done the one night stand ever since.

Braden and Gabrielle find themselves at the same pub after work one night, what started as innocent flirting ended on a beautiful relationship filled with lust, love and lots and lots of mind blowing sex.

This relationship will go thru adventure, thrill, and suspense scenarios.

I love this book, it had me laughing one minute, and lusting the next. I will recommend this great series.

The Law of Attraction by N.M. Silber-Review

Gabrielle is a Public Defender. She has been trying cases against the Sexy Hot Braden for the last 6 months. They both finally gave in and went out on a date. From the get go you could tell they were undeniably attracted to each other.

Their next date was a week later. The Sexual tension between the 2 was so strong that no matter how long they waited they were practically panting because they wanted each other so much.

Then Gabby gets a letter that is a bit threatening telling her to stop seeing Braden. The book left me Wondering If they were going to be able to be together or the person that threaten Gabby would come between them. And if Cam (Braden's cousin) Would get together with Jessica (Gabby's roommate).

Guess I will have to wait and see. This book had me laughing out loud. the Humor alone sold me on the book. Then the hot steamy sex and the chemistry that bounced off the page. I can't wait for the next book!!

The Home Court Advantage by N.M. Silber-review

This is the conclusion of book 1 of Gabrielle & Braden story. This story was just as funny as the first both had me laughing so hard. Gabby was always trying to solve who was stalking them and trying to break up her and Braden. Their chemistry didn't lose any hope it continued to burn brighter the more they knew each other. heatherway

Then Braden proposed because he can't live with out Gabby. He was trying to show her how much he loved her and couldn't live with out her. I loved this box set so much. This book offers you Suspense, Romance, Drama and smoking hot sex. SO does Braden and Gabby get married or do they break up like the stalker wants!
