Another Spongebob, the last we'll see for a while I hope. My 5 yr old loved the story, he knew it because apparently it was an episode on TV as well. I thought it was quite disgusting, that every time Spongebob sneezed, pink "suds" went everywhere. It was quite...um..colorful. Wouldn't have minded a small lesson on using a handkerchief in this book. But in any case, I couldn't wait to get to the end. Silly and typical, but at least it gets kids reading.

Supernatural is a TV show that two brothers go around saving the world from these monsters. Their names are Sam and Dean they are called the Winchester brothers. Their father and mother died and they try and revenge them. There is a demon that killed their mother and they are trying to kill it and that's how they are avenging their parents.

I recommend this show to anybody who likes ghosts, demons and, other kind of monsters. It is a scary show so some people probably couldn't watch it so just a fair warning before you watch it. It is a very long show and it will last you a long time so for people who have a lot of time on your hands you should try out this show. I think the lesson of the TV show is to stay together with your family because Sam and Dean never split up and always have their backs.
