HE'S JUST A SOUL WHO'S INTENTIONS ARE GOOD... OH LORD, PLEASE DON'T LET HIM BE MISUNDERSTOOD...

Joe has a problem. He is falling in love with his new housemate. Nothing unusual there I grant you, except that Joe is a poltergeist and this sort of thing just isn't supposed to happen. Joe is suffering an existential crisis of no small proportions.

The object of his misguided affections is a feisty and self-assured teenager named Harriet. Will he be able to save her from something much darker than himself that lurks in the shadows of the Brighton house they share? And will she be able to help him on his new found quest for redemption?
