How to Predict the Future By Creating It Yourself: The User's Manual For Your Subconscious Mind Chad Chesmark

Achieving your life's full potential and turning your dreams into your reality is made much easier when you understand how to tap into the unlimited power of your subconscious mind.

You are born with an incredibly powerful tool at your disposal, yet most of us never learn how to use that asset to its fullest potential. This book will teach you how to systematically program your subconscious mind into becoming the person that you were intended to be.

By combining traditional goal-setting techniques with modern self-hypnosis and NLP methods, you will be able to predict, and then create, the future of your dreams.

Step settling for a life of mediocracy and start achieving greatness.

"More than a book, Chad Chesmark's work is a user's manual for those looking to take life to another level. By providing actionable information on how to leverage the power of the subconscious mind, Chad is poised to impact countless lives."

- Bob Proctor - Chairman/Co-Founder Proctor Gallagher Institute

Deborah Bowman says

This book was highly recommended to me. Part business book, part cerebral action/psychology. Valid points, inspiring read, practices what he preaches. Chesmark knows his subject matter and shares it inspirationally. Written well and well worth your time. Creativity and business meet the subconscious mind.

Sarah Jordan says

Great Information

I really enjoyed this book. A lot of great information and action steps to take. Will come back to this book many times.
