From NEW YORK TIMES bestselling and award-winning author Selena Kitt - Over a Million Books Sold!

Melinda loves winning, especially when it means trouncing her arrogant stepbrother, Aaron.

He thinks he's all that and a bag of chips, but the nineties called and it wants its catch phrase back, because as far as Melinda is concerned, he's more like all that anda bag of dicks—at least, he is lately..

All her friends think he's hot, but they don't have to deal with his smug smirk or his giant ego. All they can talk about is his rumored giant... something else.

So on their long train ride home for winter break through the Canadian mountains to Upper State New York, she decides to make a wager with her big-headed stepbrother, one she hopes that will settle the score between them, once and for all.

Claire says

Ms Kitt's collection of 'stepbrother' series has been my first foray into this genre.

While the plot is not a brain teaser, the characters are generally likeable and always have a palpable chemistry that bounces off the pages.

A short but sizzling fun read and recommended for anyone looking to tiptoe into the sizzling 'stepsiblings' genre!!

Miku says

This is a sizzling hot short story. The step-sibling ls had chemistry but it ended so easily right after they did the deed. There is no clause to their relationship and there was even a mention of the step brother having a girlfriend so no.
