Our Love is the Realest 3 Shvonne Latrice

The crew is back for one last go round, in this secret and a little bit of blood spilling finale. With more of her child's father Roscoe's skeletons now out of the closet, Yikayla is forced to look to Waayil for the relationship the two used to share long ago, while accepting a surprising yet very welcome addition. Waayil of course wants nothing more than to protect the heart of the woman he's loved for almost a decade, but how will he handle his life with Yikayla, his issues with his faux baby mama Alba, his promise to be with another woman, and his dishonest sister, all while trying to stay clean and out of jail? Can he make it or will his many problems stress out and tear the two love birds apart once and for all?

The other Goode sisters and their significant others too return, hoping to settle their problems with ease. Rori now has her man, but she must deal with the consequences of what she's done to get him aka Jenni. Jonaya assumed being with Nusef would make it seem like nothing else mattered, until she realized how much her best friend meant to her. When it comes down to picking a side, Jonaya will seemingly have to choose. And lastly, Dree must face the outcome of Sean's assault and the wrath of Canyon's baby sister Jupiter. Will she be strong enough to make Sean pay no matter the costs? Or will the pressure of Jupiter's hatred, and Sean's well connected family send her running away with her tail between her legs.

Those Christian brothers

This was a great series. I loved the connection Kay and Waayil had as well as Jonaya and Nusef. Those two were one in the same. It was hilarious when Nusef asked everyone about liking ugly girls and when him and his brother went on that mission to their "friend's" house. Sef definitely wasn't about that life lol. Alba got what she deserved. Canyon was a great guy, I still don't care for Dree. I think Rori and Eko were my favorite though. The twins bio mom was a trip for real!

Good read

This is honestly a shock for me but I just couldn't get into this book. The series was good for the most part but from book 1 to this one it just wasn't doing it for me. The characters were written good but the plot didn't catch my attention. I am happy all 4 sisters finally got there love life's together and I loved Nusef and Waayil ?. The couples went through a lot and I'm happy with they ending.

What a ending to a awesome series

This was a awesome ending to this series. Yil, Sef, Eko and Canyon is BAE. They go hard for their ladies and family. These men can be gangsters and turn around and be so considerate and loveable. I liked the forgiveness demonstrated within this book. Jasper really loved his stepdaughters and I'm glad him and his wife worked out. Yilk and Sef adoptive parents was cool and loveable too. I was shocked when Mil did what he did.

I loved this story. It's as if you watched the characters grow from kids to adults. It's funny how they all knew each other then grew into their relationships. They all had their share of drama. The sisters were kind of loose so I'm glad they settled down. I felt bad for some of the characters. Sean got more than his share of payback but I'm not sorry. Alba's karma was a surprise because I really thought Waayil let it go. I'm guessing she can still walk. Poor Emil is who I felt bad about. People shouldn't love anyone more than themselves. What good does dying do when the other person lives to love again? Now as for the mother's. Yakaylah's mom was lucky to still have her husband with all she was doing. Dana was still growing and adjusting to life out of prison. I wasn't feeling her in the beginning but she got better by the end. Freya was good throughout the story. Her and her husband were the only drama free characters. I enjoyed reading this and appreciate no errors that I noticed. The author did a good job with this.

THIS LOVE STORY IS THE REALEST

Part 3 gives us the answers that Shvonne Latrice readers have been waiting for. What I like about this story is that we have quite a few real life scenarios that confront the Goode women and the Christian twins. Reconnecting of broken families, women denying their feelings for what they consider to be noble reasons, the loneliness and despair of homosexuality are just a few of the issues dealt with in this the finale of a wonderfully woven story.

Shvonne Latrice's offerings just keep getting better and, believe me, you are missing out on hours of wonderful entertainment if you sleep on her work.

Great ending.

I loved this series. What a perfect ending. Waayil is so damn petty but I love it. He and Nusef are night and day. Only thing I missed from this book is a little more about Emil. Maybe we could get a standalone about his life just maybe. Think about it ok Shvonne, it don't even have to be a full book. I feel like it could be more about him. You never let us down so I knew this was good.

Great

I really loved this series. I'm so happy that all of the Goode women got their happy ended. Yes I was mad with Wednesday at first but if she didn't do what she did no telling where Yil and Kay relationship would have gone to. Such a great read.

OMG I really enjoyed this series about Yikayla and Waayil ups and downs of obstacles and struggles of their relationship.

Yikayla and Waayil are back going strong they have been thru so many obstacles to maintain their relationship. Waayil is struggling with trying to forgive his sister Wednesday for lying about being raped by her uncle Harry because she was jealous about Yikayla and his relationship she didn't think about the consequences are that Waayil would react if he thought someone violated someone he loved. He also spent 6 years in prison if she would have told the truth. He realize she was scheming and lying caused some one to be murdered. Jonay and Musef going on strong after she admitted she loved him. Despite Marquise still trying to get her back. Jonay one of best friend Leighton had feelings for Musef and wants her to break-up with him she didn't want to hurt her she felt guilty about not telling her about her feelings for Musef. Rorie and Ecko are still going strong despite Jenni crazy tail who trys sabotage her relationship with Ecko. Alba finally tells Musef about that Sax tried to kill him and Jonay. Alba also finally admit that the baby she lost was not Waayil. Waayil and Yikayla are expecting their first baby together . Dree and Canyon goes thru so much drama in their relationship will they make it. Dree finally files charges against Sean raping and drugging her he intentionally put something in her drink and took advantage of her and violated her in the worst way. Dree finally filed report against Sean with the Dean of Students who made her feel like it was her fault degrading her because of his parents connection and their financial backing to the university. Dree also filed charges against Sean the detective act like she wasn't violated and a woman scorned out for revenge. Canyon almost beat Sean with a baseball bat for messing with his girlfriend. Yikayla work at a fashion house under master designer she runs into another of Roscoe baby mother's Brynn who trys to steals Waayil from her but her plan backfired and results in Yikayla putting hands on her she ended up move to Knoxville Tennessee with her daughter. Yikayla boss Jerica steals her dress design tells her no one use her designs pass her designs off as her Yikayla then she had the nerve to accused of flirting with husband Desmond who she throws a drink in his face because of his rude behavior. Yikayla ended up quitting her job and sued Jerica and becomes a overnight success. Sax does ultimate betrayal Nusef and Waayil discovered that he admitted to Alba he tried to shooting Nusef and Jonay. Dana and their birth father want to reenter their lives after years of being in prison for 16 years.

Great read

This series was bomb just how I like them with a happy ending. You never disappoint and your writing skills are so on point. Waayil was so in love with Lakayla he did t play a out that at all! Nusef seemed to be a little salty about Rebecca moving on at first and I don't know how she managed to keep her job at the tattoo shop but it all worked out. Sean got what he deserved and Alba did too! I can't wait til your next book drops.
