Subordinate Position Delaney Diamond

NOTE: This short story is a previously published work. Word count: 5900 words.

Danica Parker is attracted to a man at her firm: Marco Reyes—someone on her staff. When it comes to her career, she's always made the right decisions. Rather than risk her heart and her career with a sexual harassment complaint, she plays it cool whenever the sexy Director of Finance is nearby.

Marco Reyes has been attracted to Danica from day one, but she's never given an inkling she can tolerate his presence, much less express interest. When Valentine's Day arrives, Marco tries a new tactic. She may be his boss, but she's also a woman. And Marco knows how to charm a woman.

Brenda says

Delaney Diamond, you did it again! I loved this short read and the passion OMGeeee!

Laverne Brewster says

2.00 stars. There is little in the way of character development or plot; just sex. Danica Parker, CEO of the firm, and Marco Reyes, a subordinate employee are physically attracted to each other and one night after work during a storm they have at it.

Christiana says

I enjoyed this short story...I would of loved to read more about Danica and Marco..I loved his persistence with her...I'm not a fan of short stories....but this one was pretty good...

Celeste says

Sweet little office romance short

Marco hmmm persistent paid off. You have to appreciate the will power of Danica. But as it goes when the heart yearns for something it usually happens.

Lady says

Ms. Diamond offered a tale of two secret admirers from afar gracefully.

Camille Adams says

No story and no subordination.

MarytheBookLover says

It was ok...

Lady Raven RAVE! says

This was a very short, sweet and cute romance. I really enjoyed it, I thought Marco was very sexy and his pursuit of Danica made him muy caliente, what he did for Danica on valentines day was sooooo sweet. Danica very strong woman great to read about. The chase is what did it for me mainly in the book, Marco has be working for Danica for 8 months now and he is very attracted to her and is trying his hardest to get her attention, while Danica is feeling attracted to Marco she is trying to maintain a strick working relationship by keeping Marco at arms lent.

Would surely recommend good read for me and look forward to reading more from the author.
