This was a great anthology written by great authors. I loved each story I read. My biggest problem is that I ran out of time so I haven't read all of them. I highly recommend.

Justice for Laine-Susan Stoker-4 Stars

Laine meets Wes when she agrees to accompany her friend on a charity photoshoot to capture a "real" cowboy. She doesn't expect the instant attraction between the two of them.

This was a complete and straightforward story. I really liked the flow of the story and the characters.

Justice Burning-Elle James-5 Stars

Phoebe Sinclair is jilted at the alter. In her relief, she steals the groom's car and skips out of town, only to find out that the groom hadn't really skipped town and she has led an innocent town into danger.

When I read the description, I didn't think I was going to like the story. Then I read the story. The author blew me away with how great it was. I loved following Phoebe grow up and find a life she never thought she'd have. Loved it.

Laying Down The Law-Becky McGraw-4 Stars

Melanie Fox is a successful doctor in Texas, far away from her hometown in Georgia. When she's forced to go back home to take care of her mother and aunt, she runs into Brock Cooper. Brock is the new sheriff and former bad boy that Melanie had been in love with when she was a teenager. Right from the bat they clash, but when Brock asks her to help with his ailing son, Melanie does what she can to help him.

This was a pretty good story. I really liked the characters, especially Melanie's mom. The only problem I had, and why I'd give it a 4 instead of a 5, is that Brock can't seem to stop calling Melanie by a nickname that was horrible to her throughout the story. This really bugged me, although it didn't deter from the story as a whole.

Texas Justice-Cynthia D'Alba-5 Stars

Kyle Monroe is the town sheriff. He finally got Tess Sweeney, a surgeon at the local hospital, to start dating him. When she's accused of malpractice and tries to push him away, he refuses to let her go.

This was a great story. The characters were well written and there was a lot of story for the amount of pages given.

Texas Lone Star-Sable Hunter-3.5 Stars

Dallas McCain is a bitter Texas Ranger. When he's asked to check out a claim of cattle being stolen, he doesn't expect his whole outlook on life to be changed.

This was a very cute story with a serious plot. My only complaint is that Lennon, although definitely a survivor, seems to have her head in a romance novel in regards to Dallas and I had a little problem with that.

Cain's Law-Delilah Devlin-4 Stars

Cain Whitfield is a deputy in a small Texas town. When he's called to assist with a fire and sees the victim, Carina Black, he starts to feel things he hasn't felt in a long time.

This was a good, quick read. Some of the scenes were really hot and there was a good overall story.

Protect and Serve-Sabrina York-5 Stars

Charlie Dunham just became the new sheriff in his old hometown. When he pulls over Claire Silver, his old high school crush and his best friend's younger sister, his interest and attraction are still very much alive.

Now he'll have to see if the feelings are mutual.

This was a really good story with a combination of coming home plot and best friend's little sister with a bit of danger thrown in for good measure. The story flowed very well. I especially loved the dancing scene:) I really enjoyed it. I look forward to reading more from this series.

This review is for Laying Down The Law by Becky McGraw. (Will add more as I finish.)

I have always been a huge fan of anything that Becky McGraw writes, and this book was no exception. Brock Cooper is the Sheriff in the little town of Sunny Glen, Georgia. He has his hands full, what with being sheriff, trying to run his ranch, and making time for his son, Brady, who is sick more days than he is well. Melanie Fox, is a Doctor, and she is called home to help her mother who has had an "accident". Melanie doesn't want to go back home, she considers it a place where 500 of the oddest hillbillies on earth live, and believe me her mother Merry and Aunt June, are definitely odd, but lovable! Melanie does not have fond memories of the place, and she never expects to run up with Brock, her first crush. Brock and Melanie cannot believe how much they have both changed, and Melanie would prefer to leave this town sooner rather than later, but once she meets Brady, she has no choice but to help him, to figure out why he is so sick. If you love romance with sexy men, strong women, passion, humor, suspense, heartache, and yes, even a little hardheadedness, that would be Brock, then this is the book for you. I did not want to put it down once I started reading. Great job, Becky McGraw, I loved it and would give it more than five stars if I could!

This is a review of Texas Lone Star by Sable Hunter.

A Texas Ranger named Dallas is called on to help a lady rancher by the name of Lennon, not only are some of her cattle missing, but other weird things are going on at her ranch, and the local sheriff is turning a blind eye to her problems. Lennon, or Lenny, lives with her odd little family, that consists of an older man named George and Sally, her adopted daughter. This was a great read, and time I read the story of how Dallas got his name, I was a goner. Some of the people in his life were real jerks, that caused him a lot of pain. This is a must read that tugs at all kinds of emotions, sadness, happiness, hope, and love. Be prepared to swoon and giggle!!

This is a review of Cowboy Lawe by Donna Michaels.

Although this book is part of the Dangerous Curves series, it can be read as a standalone, and oh, what a great little read it was. Callahan "Rook" Lawe, has went home to his ranch, to help his brother, Remy who has had a little accident, sort of. Rook has recently started working for the Knight Agency, and although his brother says he doesn't need his help with the odd things that have been happening at the ranch, Rook refuses to leave. To say that he put the "S" in stubborn is putting it mildly. Since Rook will not accept help from the agency, they send him a woman that supposedly needs his protection, ha! Her name is Tarah Lynch, or Ms. Tarah Swanson, who also works for the Knight agency, although she and Rook have never met. From the beginning the chemistry between these two is off the charts, but also are the bombings, break-ins, and other weird happenings around the ranch, and it all seemed to start with two tiny little kittens, named Semper and Fi.

This is a must read if you are a lover of romance filled with suspense, drama, humor, sexy men, and feisty heroines. I loved old Burly, he is a mess. And I do hope that Remy, gets his own book, I think there is a lot more to him than we saw in this book. Five fantastic stars!!

PROTECT AND SERVE by Sabrina York

I don't think I will ever get tired of reading stories from the Double Stud Ranch! In Protect and Serve, Claire Silver is feeling time ticking away and wondering if she will ever find "Mr. Right". Nash is now a sheriff and the one to assist her when she has car trouble. When someone comes after this runaway bride will she be able to be with the the deputy or will she go back to where she comes from. I haven't read any of the Ugly Stick Saloon stories and now need to add them to my list to read about the others.

Laying Down The Law - When Melanie is called home to take care of her mother she finds her old crush is the sheriff. Brock's son is ill and the doctor's can't figure out what's wrong so he takes a chance and asks Melanie to check him out. Will she be able to find out what's wrong before it's too late? A great story that will have you laughing at the same time hoping they figure out what's wrong Brock's son.

Texas Justice - Tess finds herself operating on the child of an ex-lover but when the child dies because of his injuries she finds herself in his sites to take down. She decides to break it off with her sheriff to keep him out of it. But that cowboy won't listen.

Cain's Law - Carina's on the run from her boyfriend but when he finds her and sets fire to the cabin she's staying at Cain's elected to watch her. Just has they think he's gone and give into their attraction he comes back and doesn't care who gets in his way to get to her. This was a fun story to read with just enough heat.

Cowboy Lawe - Strange things happen on Rooks ranch but when things escalate they figure out someone's after them. Tarah is assigned to watch over him but since he won't take help she goes in undercover as someone he needs to watch over. Sparks fly between them but what will happen who she really is? Love a story with a gal who has snarky comments, makes for a fun read!

Cowboy's Best Shot - Adriana is a former prostitute now working as a bartender but enjoying herself off the clock. Hunter works security for the resort and has seen her after hours activities and when he saves her from a bad situation things change between them. When they start dating he finds out how older brothers can be since her's aren't to thrilled about the situation but they don't care. Unfortunately someone else doesn't like it either and wants her for himself. Loved this story, great characters and it had me laughing at her brothers and at the same time wanting some of the baked goods that are in the story.

Badge & A Saddle - Watching through her telescope one night Mina saw more then she expected. On the run she chose Rex, a policeman, to protect her. He does but when he finds out all she knows about what happens can he trust her again. A great story that has you rooting for them to make it from the start.

Kara left her family home to get away from her father and Cade has always had a thing for her but when they were younger he was from the wrong side of town for her father. When they realize she's still in danger she refuses to go with her father and instead stays with Cade. When they find out who's behind the attacks will they survive to have their HEA? I loved this story and it keeps you guessing while enjoying watching them finally get together.

Lazarus - Bea's story was broken into and Lazarus is the one sent to investigate. Will they be able to let go of the past and figure out the thefts and give romance a chance? This was a fun read with another fun couple.

Justice for Laine by Susan Stoker

Laine and Mackenzie (Justice for Mackenzie, book one) are best friends and would do anything for each other. So when Mack has a work engagement she can't get out of, Laine's role of assistant/support giver during a photo shoot for a charity calendar turns into the coordinator/"I can't believe I'm doing this" position. But Laine will be thanking Mack for having to bail on her, once she meets the next "model."

Westin, a Texas Ranger and ranch owner, works with Daxton, Mack's Ranger boyfriend, and agreed to do the calendar. He expected to be slightly uncomfortable as someone took pictures of him all day. He did not expect to meet Laine, the woman who would come to mean everything to him.

Wes and Laine have an instantaneous, and hot, connection. It doesn't take long for Wes to ask her out and Laine eagerly accepts. They both know something is there, something worth exploring. As they're getting to know each other, Laine disappears and no one can find her. Wes is desperate to locate the woman he loves and calls on his friends to help.

Will Laine be found in time? Will Wes and Laine find their HEA? Will the charity calendar be a success? One-click now and find out. While this novella can be read as a standalone, I highly recommend reading the series in order because not only is this author and her writing fantastic, but also as previous characters are mentioned in this book, and I know you'll be curious about their stories.

On a side note, I will be editing my review as I read the other contributions. I just couldn't resist reading and writing my review now for one of my favorite authors.

The Cowboy Justice 12 Pack is a great boxed set! It's packed with action, adventure, intrigue, suspense, and romance. And of course it's full of hot, sexy cowboy lawmen. I've purchased some boxed sets that not every story appealed to me, but I liked each and every one in this anthology, and even loved a few. It kept me up reading late into the night several nights. It's also a great deal for 12 books. Some of the authors I had read books by previously, but I also found some new authors to follow. This set is a must read for romance fans, especially romantic suspense and western fans. I highly recommend it.

Justice for Laine by Susan Stocker

I like how the story starts, the characters names are great! I like the bond that Mack and Laine have and I like how Mack is bribing Laine to help with photo shoot. This is well written so far and I am enjoying it. I love the that there was an instant attraction between Wes and Laine. Loved the mystery of the story the romances that blossomed between them. IT was very hot sparks through out the book. It was a great story.

Justice Burning by Elle James

It's great how the story started. I like the name of the town. It's perfect what is happen. I like how the story is going but Phoebe should cover up things when she is around the law. Nash is perfect for her as long as he is will to take a chance on love. I like the bond that The Grayson Brothers have. They have fun with each other and pick on each other and it's great. It's good that Nash is opening up to someone instead of keeping it bottled up. This story was written really well and I like the suspense and the love that was happening. It was a great ending!

Laying Down the Law by Becky McGraw

Blind Sided by Lindsay McKenna

It's a good story! I like the variety of personalities in all the characters. Cade and Kara great together and their strong instincts are fantastic. They maybe from two side of the money world but she does care. She cares about more important things than that and that is what great about the whole story. Lindsay did an excellent job of writing it.

Brock needs Melaine's strength to make it through everything that he is going through keep the woman he really loves! All the characters are fantastic and I love them all! It was well written!

Pansy says

Would you believe, I read all 12 of these amazing stories in less than a week. ALL 12! They were all that good. So yes, if you haven't gotten this deal yet grab it quick before the price goes up. Even then, it will still be worth the price of admission. 12 wonderful, entertaining stories.

If you are concerned that many of these are other than a book one in a series, don't worry about it. Even though I read most of these authors, cowboys isn't always at the top of my list. I like them well enough, but I tend to the other tropes these authors write so haven't necessarily read all the series either. But each of these did well as stand-alone reads. So hop on. You won't get lost.

JUSTICE FOR LAINE by Susan Stoker - this says that it is a book four of the Badge of Honor Texas Heroes series. Although characters from previous books were mentioned, they did not detract from the action in this story. In fact they rather enhanced it. I may go find the other stories, but it isn't a burning need. This story? I will say this much - Hot calendar models and stray dogs. grin

JUSTICE BURNING by Elle James - A Hellfire story #2. I do know this author, but haven't read a lot by her. But this story was rather fun. Run-away bride generally piques my interest. Having land in a small town called Hellfire . . . some interesting twists and turns to this adventure.

LAYING DOWN THE LAW by Becky McGraw - The Cowboy Way #4 - Brock's story. Nope. Have read any of these either. Didn't matter. But how did Brock do that to himself? Really? Could thing the Doctor came to town. He needed the help. Good story.

TEXAS JUSTICE by Cynthia D'Alba - Diamond Lakes, Texas. I have a few of this author's cowboy stories, but I don't think we have been to Diamond Lakes Yet. Sounds like a nice place to visit. Not sure about the politics there though. But, it seems the sheriff is on it.

TEXAS LONE STAR by Sable Hunter - Texas Heroes #4. sigh I do love them Texas Rangers. Even, or especially, the broken ones. A lovely story with action and adventure. I do have to mention, Lennon surprised me.

CAIN'S LAW by Delilah Devlin - Cowboys on the Edge. Another of the authors I have been reading for a few years. She always has a good story. This one didn't disappoint. Although there was some interesting action, there was also a rather sweet romance.

COWBOY LAWE by Donna Michaels - Dangerous Curves #4. Stands alone just fine and with this blurb, "More than bullets fly when a former SEAL protects a sexy witness who's actually an undercover agent secretly assigned to protect the stubborn SEAL." grin enjoy.

COWBOY'S BEST SHOT by Lexi Post - Poker Flats #3. I gotta say, this one stuck with me a bit. Not totally sure why except for the very broken people finding their way. This was almost gut wrenching. Wow! Will be Looking into the rest of this series.

PROTECT AND SERVE by Sabrina York. This author, I have read just about everything she has written and I happen to know this is the third prequel to the Stripped Down series. Although, yes I have read the other prequels, this will stand-alone. The high jinks that goes on at the Stud Ranch are always entertaining.

BADGE AND A SADDLE by Randi Alexander. Great action going on in this. Lots of twists, turns and surprises.

BLIND SIDED by Lindsay McKenna. This one is so aptly named. The romance was especially sweet and poignant, not to mention some heart stopping action.

LAZARUS by Beth Williamson - Circle Eight Millennium. Another poignant read with a broken Texas rancher and the lady in the distress who helps him fix his past. Not as action packed as some of the others but didn't lack for story.

I have to mention that in putting together this little review, I was reminded that there are a couple of other collections by this group of authors - Cowboy 12 pack and 12-Alarm Cowboys. I have both in my to be read mountain. I really need to dig these out and read them. Bet I will find some of the early stories right there. sigh Bet you do too. If not, I recommend you grab them too. It will keep you in books to read for a while. At the current prices that is 36 stories for $6.97. What a steal.

3* Justice Burning by Elle James

This was a quick read with a runaway bride and a hot lawman. Phoebe Sinclair realized that she did love and couldn't marry Ryan and plans to tell him. Phoebe runs after her groom disappears from the church before she can talk to him. She meets Nash Grayson Deputy Sheriff after she's broken down at the side of the road and has discovered a jail able situation. They are both drawn to each other and can't keep their minds off the other. The only problem is that Nash just might have to arrest Pheobe if he finds out what she's been hiding.
