Michelle Morrell says

While it was interesting to see how and why Riley hooked up with Twilight, it was also some good insights into Twilight's motivations, which were fuzzy in the Buffy Season 8 graphic novel. A little clearer here (and still kind of lame).

Ryan Gillam says

I probably should read more Buffy comics so I had some idea about what was going on. Hmm. Shall pick up Season 8 then come back to this.

Bubbles Hunty Honest & Direct Opinions says

Riley was never my favorite. He was too insecure in the tv show and that led him to some dark places.

I did like this and the story was good, but I was confused. They were talking about being retired and blah blah but all the drawings showed them on a mission. I was wondering how that is being retired, and therefore made most of the conversation void.

I still liked it even if I didn't really get it. It had some good quotes in it about relationships that I liked.

Tanya Reads says

Just like Xander says in Twilight "I was always team Riley." Also, I love love love Karl Moline!!!

R. L. Carlo says

What can I say? It's Buffy, of course I'm going to love it.
