A BBW who's alone at Christmas + a lonely bear shifter searching for his mate + a crowded house full of relatives = a snowy yet sizzling holiday romance!

Ashley Carson isn't feeling very merry. Her boyfriend dumped her right before Christmas, and she's not looking forward to another holiday spent all alone. But when she arrives back home to the small town of Oakville, her family has a special gift ready: matchmaking services with local football coach Matthew Phillips! He's handsome and new to town, but is he the right one for her?

As soon as Matt sets eyes on Ashley, he recognizes that she's his destined mate. But will she accept his love... and the fact that he's a bear shifter? Or will the truth scare away his mate forever?

The days are ticking down until Christmas, and Matt and Ashley don't have much time if they want to seal their love with a kiss beneath the mistletoe. And, more importantly, Ashley's prying relatives might keep them from finding the privacy they need for a sexy celebration! Will their Christmas be naughty... or very, very nice?

The Bear's Christmas Bride is a smoking hot standalone BBW bear shifter romance. No cliffhangers!

The Bear's Christmas Bride is a short novella that packs a powerful story punch. Ashley is heading home for Christmas. Alone. Again. No matter how she tries, the men she's meeting or getting involved with are proving to be a bunch of users and losers. She's still convinced that just right man for her is out there somewhere, it's just a matter of meeting him. Little does she know that she's driving straight for him – but will she be prepared to take him as he is or not at all.

Matt is a bear shifter living among humans. He's the local high school football coach and he loves his job – but he's almost given up on finding his mate. Alone he really doesn't see how she's ever going to walk into his life. The last place he ever thought to catch the scent of his mate was in the grocery store aisle on Christmas Eve – really? But there was no doubt about who this beautiful, human woman was – he knew it and man did his bear ever know it. Now comes the hard part – convincing this beautiful lady that they were meant to be together – and oh yeah, he turns into a big, bear upon occasion.

Ashley is attracted to Matt and is even beginning to have some hope that she's found the man for her – right up until he shares a secret with her. One that she's not ready to hear. Can she put logic aside for the sake of love?

The Bear's Christmas Bride is a charming Christmas novella that give us a very defined story with interesting secondary characters as well. Ashley is a strong woman but Matt has tossed something amazing into the romantic mix with his bear – and she's just not sure what to do with that information. Which is to me an enjoyable reaction to read instead of the instant acceptance. After all, it is a big deal and certainly not something you run into every day – so it takes some thought. We aren't left in doubt for very long that love will win over everything – but as a reader of Shifter romance – hell, as an addicted Shifter romance reader... it is nice to see some realistic indecision in stories every now and then.

Looking for an entertaining Shifter Christmas Romance? Then go check out The Bear's Christmas Bride. It's a fun read.

This was very cute christmas story about finding love when you least expect it. Ashley has come home for Christmas without her old boyfriend the cheater. The family is all together for the holidays and her Great Aunt is trying to hook hr up. Matt the football coach is her intended date. They meet in the grocery store of all places. Matt's bear sits up and takes notice. How do you tell a human your a bear and his mate? Will Ashley be able to accept Matt's bear? Will her love for him overcome her reluctance to believe? This is a must read at 5 stars.

Zoe Chant did a good job at writing this wonderful Christmas story. I really enjoyed reading it. I loved the story line and how her family wanted Ashly to be happy so they decided to help her, by matching her up with the school football coach.

Ashly Carson is headed home for Christmas and she just isn't feeling the Christmas spirit this year. Her boyfriend had just dumped her right before Christmas and she just did not want to spend another Christmas alone!! Hoping for a nice Christmas with her family she doesn't suspect that the family had plans to fix her up with the school football coach, Matthew Phillips. He is handsome and new in town. Will Matthew be able to convince Ashly that she is his mate?

Matthew Phillips is a bear shifter who just happens to be the new coach to the high school football coach. Seeing Ashy for the first time Matt realizes that Ashly is his life mate. The one thing that really bothers him is he is scared that she won't want him once she finds out he is a bear shifter. Will she accept his bear, or will she turn her back on him and his bear?

Time is ticking down and Ashly's family sort of gets in the way of Ashly and Matt trying to get to know each other. Will Ashly and Matthew find love in spite of her meddling family? Will their Christmas be naughty, or nice?

Read and find out what happens.

Out with the old

Ashley goes home for Christmas minus a boyfriend. Her great aunt wants to fix her up with the new football coach. She politely refuses. Goes shopping for mom and who does she meet? Matt, the new coach. She invites him to the pre Christmas Eve party. There is so much heat between them. What happens when they realize how badly they want each other? What happens when Ashley finds out Matt is a bear shifter? You'll have to read the book to find out.
