Bella was whiny and that wasn't an attractive quality and as someone in business, she let her emotions get the better of her way too much, just not attractive honestly I stopped reading the book moved on to other King books and only came back cos they mentioned Jesse a lot and he was fun.

She just mad me upset TBH!! A woman who makes business decisions with her hormones I cannot respect, if he said he loved he she would have done what he wanted... Eeeek so so so so unappealing to me!

I enjoyed it. The characters are well developed and compelling.

Jesse King carried the memory of his mystery woman for the past three years. And that's the reason why he decided to move to Morgan Beach. Then he met Bella Cruz. She infuriated him and at the same time intrigues him.

Bella Cruz loved Morgan Beach. She considered it her home. She felt threatened when Jesse built his business there and started renovating. And she still can't forget the way he broke her heart three years ago when he barely acknowledge her after their mind-blowing tryst.

And after Jesse learned that she's his mystery woman sparks flew all over the book. Gosh. Jesse was so so sexy trying to seduce Bella. Hot. And when she finally give in its explosive! Plus the groveling. It was the best. Haha!

But I did feel that there are some weak points, areas that could have been played out better. But I still enjoyed this book and I'm looking forward for more good books from her in the future.

3 stars

I didn't like the heroine AT ALL. She was so annoying. Thank goodness I loved the hero. He's the best so far and quite charming. Also, he was a former professional surfer guy and still surf! What's not to love about that, eh?

EJ says

I find their circumstance cute.

Amanda Sheila says

I liked it, even though it's not really my favorite. 3.5 stars.

Mostly because I was expecting more drama, but then again it's quite normal from Harlequin books. Jesse's a bit annoying though, but I love how he grovelling at the end.

Look forward to read the rest of King series!

Jojo says

Bella's a nutjob.

Ann Keller says

Millionaire Jesse King had it all - wealth, power, even women when he wanted them. But he was haunted by the memory of a woman he'd known only one night, a mysterious creature who had captured his heart, then disappeared seemingly in the light of day.

Bella Cruz had no such illusions. She'd fallen in love with and been rejected by Jesse King three years ago. Now he'd returned to Morgan Beach, claiming the quaint downtown for his own means and destroying the gentle ambience of the coastal town. Even worse, when they met, Mr. King seemed not to recognize her either. Those few special moments together so long ago apparently had no meaning in his corporate empire. Jesse didn't remember her at all! Or did he?

---

Theresa says

Bella reads as pathetic in the first half.

Fanniny Moreno Zavaleta says

Hated the heroine but the King didn't disappoint me, on the contrary he was everything I hoped for and more, now I want my "green" house
