Point Blank / Double Take / TailSpin Catherine Coulter

Point Blank:The explosive action kicks off as FBI agent Ruth Warnecki hunts for Confederate gold in a West Virginia cave. She never expects to encounter the grisly murder that catapults her into a horrific plague of death. At Hooter's Motel in Maryland, FBI agents Savich and Carver are nearly killed while attempting to rescue a kidnap victim. The search is cut short when Savich takes a fateful call on his cell, as a mysterious voice threatens to kill him and his wife.

Double Take:A respectable-looking man distracts Julia Ransom with conversation before striking her unconscious and heaving her over the Pier 39 railing into San Francisco Bay. Special Agent Cheney Stone quickly realizes the attempt on Julia's life has to connect to the murder of her husband. In Maestro, Virginia, Sheriff Dixon Noble learns about a woman named Charlotte Pallack, whose extraordinary resemblance to his vanished wife sends him across the country. In San Francisco, Dix's and Cheney's paths cross, brought together by FBI Special Agents Dillon Savich and Lacey Sherlock.

TailSpin:FBI Special Agent Jackson Crowne is flying renowned psychiatrist Dr. Timothy MacLean back to Washington, D.C., to protect him and discover who's trying to kill him. But they don't make it. Their crash is witnessed by Rachael Abbott, a young woman who has just narrowly escaped drowning. When Savich and Sherlock arrive in Parlow, they discover Jack is down but not out, that Rachael saved his and Dr. MacLean's lives, and that she's hiding something big.

I am a huge fan of Catherine Coulter's FBI mysteries and this was a good one. I always enjoy a story with agents Savich and Sherlock and Agent Ruth Warnecki and Sheriff Dixon Noble are also interesting characters. Add to the mix Agent Cheney Stone saving the life of plain old civilian murder suspect Julia Ransom, then throw in the mystery of who really killed Julia's husband and what happened to Sheriff Noble's wife - well, things start popping! I couldn't put it down!

Absolutely love her FBI series and now she has added on with a British Intelligence series and it is great also.

My rating for the FBI Series and this book, in particular is 4.5. Once again Catherine Coulter has used her already known and appreciated set of characters to weave an interesting, while not very plausible, tale of unrelated incidents to hold my attention and introduce new people who are equally enjoyable as those I have met before. I specially enjoy the hints of para-normal communication between Sherlock and Savitch. The other thing that rings true between the characters in this series is the love and enjoyment they take in one another. That type of emotional attachment is rare in most of the romance novels nowadays. Most stress the mis-communication and conflicts between characters who finally realize they are in love where this author ties her characters together from the beginning and creates a scenario of them against the villains.
