Kyra Gates says

Not one of my favorites, but it was okay.

Shawnette says

A reprint from Ms. Byrd's early years...NOT as HOT & SPICY as her present-day reads...but it's still full of that UNIQUE and extremely HILARIOUS wit she always portrays throughout her novels...I was CAUGHT up in Miles and Destiny journey from neighbors-to-nemesis-to jogging buddies-to friends-to partners in business-to lovers...and it ONLY took them 10 LONG years(smh)to see what everyone else knew from the start...but will their new found PASSION survive the dreaded Stafford curse...another CHARMING and sweet tale.

Niqua says

Great book loved it

Doretha Robinson says

Book failed

Ok,I believe the story was well-written but to long and drawn out.The best thing I can say is it a first out of all the books I've read so far.

Teaguem2005 says

Ok read. A little too slow for my taste. Took Destiny and Miles five years to just be civil and then another five to acknowledge their attraction. I never quite understood the mysterious suicide of Destiny's twin Adam but the conversation Destiny had with him while intoxicated was bizarre. I'm sure that's not whatvthe author was shooting for but that's certainly the target hit

M Landry says

Cute love story. Loved the time jumps.

Chelsea says

This was an okay book. I wish the couple would have gotten together sooner than later. A 10 year progression was a bit much but overall it was just decent.

Angela says

Comical and endearing

Karen says

Not as juicy as some of her other books, but it was a nice little love story that took extremely long in my opinion to happen.

Kimberly says

Great love story!
