How would you like to be able to walk into your dolls' house and take part in what is going on inside? This is exactly what happened to Elizabeth Small one day, when, magically, she found herself walking through the little front door of her dolls' house.

When you read this book, you will find yourself sharing Elizabeth's escapades with her dolls. You will meet Vanessa, the bossy doll; Lupin, who is unfortunately never dressed in anything except a hat and blue wooly vest; Jane, a gentle and helpful doll; Jacqueline, the rather greedy French doll -- and, of course, the funny little monkey who lives on the roof of the dolls' house.

CLM says

The monkey was never my favorite character but I like Elizabeth, the owner of the dollhouse, and her dolls very much.
