Jenna Blackwell decides to go shopping on Black Friday. While doing so, gets her purse stolen!! Now all she wants to do is go home to her 10 year old son Cameron. The manager finally comes in and tells her her purse has been found ;) The man that took down the punks that took the purse is a Former Navy Seal named Riley Stanton. When Riley and Jenna meet for the first time SPARKS FLY..

This story is one that will make you laugh and cry. It makes your heart race and feel like it will stop all at once. This is a must read. I love the people in the book. Even though they aren't blood they are a team and that makes everyone family. If you haven't you should read LONG WAY HOME and FINDING HOME. It is 1st & 2nd books of the "Home Series".

Ann Vaughn has given us yet another amazing book. We get Riley ex seal and Jenna. Riley has a the need to protect and help Jenna from the first time they meet. They are both instantly attracted to each other only thing is Jenna has a 10 year old son Cameron but that's not problem for Riley because he falls in love with them both.

So during this book you will laugh and fall in love with a few people. Mike for one is freaking awesome I won't tell you why I think this but I loved him as part of Tessa's team in long way home but in Home For Christmas it evolves to something beyond words. Then we have Riley's mom, dad and brothers all three of them and wow even through their short appearance you just fall in love with their characters. Let's not forget Colt and his humour but when Riley needs him he is a phone call away and does everything he can to help. We fall in love with these characters not only because they are apart of Riley but because they accept Jenna and her son cam with open hearts. The love you see from the beginning to end was so amazing even when things got bad you just knew that Riley would make things right some how and he did with the help of those he trust. So I won't say anymore except pick this book up it freaking good!

Another AMAZEBALLS book from Ann Vaughn! So first let me say if you haven't read Long Way Home and Finding Home you need to go buy them ASAP because while all these books are standalone, they do have intermingling characters. And the fact that all 3 books are the best books I have read in a long time!! This's book has it all! The oh so handsome Riley who has a heart of gold and a very protective side meets single mom Jenna and is immediately drawn to her. Wanting to get to know her and her son Cam. After spending some time with both of them, Riley completely falls in love with Jenna and Cam. This was a really great melt your heart book! A wonderful Christmas read, but I can tell you I will be reading it even in the summer time because it really is that good. Ann Vaughn definitely has become one of my absolute favorite authors ever!! I recommend every single book she writes. You will not be disappointed!! I give this book a thousand AMAZEBALLS stars!!!

My Review:

4.7 Star Review - A Home For Christmas

I recommend this book.

This book contains passion, a kidnapping, and some very funny parts.

Riley witnesses a bunch of kids snatching purses and chases them down to get the purses back. When he is returning the purses he meets Jenna. She thanks him for getting her purse back and he asks her to lunch.

As the story unfolds you get pulled into the sweet and loving side of Riley. He is a natural protector and try's to protect not only Jenna but also her son Cam from her ex-husbands problems.

You get to see just how strong a person Jenna is and how far she will go to protect her family.

Cam has a lot of anger issues because of his father and how he has been treated by him over the last few years. Sometimes it seems like some of his thoughts throughout the story are of a much older boy.

As Riley and Jenna spend more and more time together you can see them falling in love. You can also see how that love is making Cam very happy.

Very good read. Can't wait for Ann's next book. Hope some of her next stories will be about some of the other characters from this story.....

Now there was plenty of drama in this book with a strung out ex-husband, but the story still focused on the relationship between Jenna and Riley who is ex navy seals which makes him even hotter.

Loved this super sweet holiday romance! Riley is 35 and retired from the military 3 years ago and now runs his own security business with his best friend. When he stops some purse snatchers and returns it back to its owner, he meets Jenna. Jenna is a 29 year old divorced single mom. She's devoted to her son and hasn't dated since her divorce but there is something special about Riley. I adored this couple and the chemistry they had from the moment they met. This book takes place over the holidays and it's super sweet, low angst and has a good amount of steam. I really enjoyed this book and can't wait to read more by this author!

I'm not really sure how to express how much i loved this book! it was Fantastic! Jenna is a single mother of ten year old Cameron and Riley is an ex Navy SEAL who owns his own security and does a spot with the SWAT team his uncle is in charge of. When Jenna has her purse nicked, Riley is the guy that comes to the rescue and retrieves her purse from the thieves and the blossoming romance begins from there. Riley is her knight in shining armor who comes to her rescue in all situations that happen as he tries to pursue her. I loved that you got to read not only from Riley and Jenna's POV but from Wade, the ex husband of Jenna's, Cameron and as Wade starts getting in some trouble, you even get to read the POV of the criminals too. I think as i read the story i couldn't help swooning over Riley as he so romantic. Jenna and Riley's relationship is amazing to read and sometimes i found myself smiling at some of the heart felt moments in the book. It took me a day to read as i couldn't put it down, i loved it that much. You have to try this book if you haven't read this as its a worthwhile read and you won't be disappointed.

I have been blessed to have developed such a great relationship with Ann, she is so sweet and wonderful! She is one of those authors that has been there from the start of my blog page and I love her. I think it's a big plus that I just LOVE LOVE LOVE her books!! She was gracious enough to send me an advance copy of her book. Just like her previous two books, this one did not disappoint, if anything I think this might be the one I love the most. It is very upbeat, and even though there is some drama, and intense moment they are never too dark and intense.

This story starts off on Black Friday, with Jenna, a divorced single mother, having to deal with having her purse stolen after finding out that the store was out of what she was looking for. While waiting to deal with the police, in comes Riley, a former military man who comes to the rescue and gets her purse back. Instantly there is an attraction, it's been years since Jenna has looked at another man, having been hurt by her ex-husband. But Riley surprises her, slowly breaking down her walls. A simple invite to breakfast turns into a great relationship. Slowly Jenna lets herself fall for Riley, she can't help it especially with the way that he treats her son Cam. Riley treats him more as a son than even his own father does.

We also see how much Cam begins to trust and become attached to Riley. Riley himself cannot explain the intense feelings he feels towards not only Jenna, but Cam as well. He wants them both in his life forever. But of course there is drama that comes when everything seems to be going right. Wade Blackwell, Cam's father and Jenna's ex-husband, comes into the picture. He is jealous of what Riley has with Cam and Jenna. He believes that Jenna is still his. There are some crazy revelations and intense moments that occur once Wade is involved in the story, moments that I did not see coming. WOW! Loved every page of it. Jenna and Riley love one another, but will they be able to work past Wade coming into their lives and trying to tear them apart?

This might be my favorite Christmas time, holiday story to have read. It's fun and lovely but also intense and emotional. I cannot wait to read Ann's next book. Don't worry Colt and Shane! I still love you both!!

Lost in Romance Books says

This was a super sweet romance, perfect for an easy read. I loved how the author was able to write an endearing romance without the typical angst that so many novels have now (no cheating, no major misunderstanding, no breakup). Now there was plenty of drama with a strung out ex-husband, but the story focused on the relationship between Jenna (a single mom) and Riley (an ex-Navy Seal). Their love was sweet, pure, healthy and yes, hot! I also loved how even though Riley was an alpha male, he did not try to take over Jenna, but respected her independence and parenting. The story was well written and had a great cast of supporting characters. Being a counselor myself, I loved that Riley's cousin Lainey was a children counselor who worked with Jenna's son. The epilogue was amazing. It showed how blended families (who are all mentally healthy and stable) can work. My favorite quote was at the end of the story when Jenna and her son gave Riley his Christmas present: "we thought that the most special thing we could give you, was our love and the hope that you would finally feel you belong. So, that's what we wanted to give you: us, and a Home for Christmas."
