Engaged off Bourbon Street Deanna Chase

From New York Times bestselling author Deanna Chase, a Jade Calhoun series short story.

It's Christmas time, and newly engaged Jade Calhoun and her fiancé Kane are having a party at Summer House in Cypress Settlement. The tree is decorated, the mistletoe is in place, and the crab puffs are to die for. Nothing can spoil this celebration...except for some wayward magic and a pesky ghost who crashes the party.

Engaged off Bourbon Street is a 6500 word short story. It is number 3.5 in the series, right after Demons of Bourbon Street. Originally published in Holiday Wishes in 2012.

Engaged Off Bourbon Street is a 2014 Bayou Moon Publication. I was provided a copy of this book in exchange for an honest review.

This super short story was certainly an usual Christmas themed story. Kane and Jade are having a Christmas/engagement party, but some spelled candles and mistletoe reek havoc on their guest causing them to literally take Jade's suggestions to them which has come extremely wild consequences.

I couldn't help but chuckle a few times while reading this one. A ghost gets involved with in the story too and helps Jade realize what is causing her friends to behave so strange. Although the story is very short, it is worth checking out no matter what time of year it is. You will find yourself smiling at the screwball effects magic sometimes has.

Overall 3.5 rounded to 4

It's a side book from the series. Holiday themed as the title and photo show and state. I do really love this series. It's my get away from reality series and I wish they could come out at a rate of one a week! I'm on this authors team!

Chatel Casto says

A very funny short story that happens between books 3 and 4. It tells the story of the ghost Camille and what she does during Kane and Jade's engagement party that then causes the events that happen in book 4. You will definitely love this short story, it will having you laughing and shaking your head thinking "oh my" but in a good way.

Jessica Ballard says

Funny and lighthearted!

I love Jade Calhoun. She's always getting into trouble. Even in this short story, a simple spell goes wrong and hilarity ensues. It definitely left me wanting more, as all of Deanna Chase's books seem to do.

Alyssa White says

This little short had some great potential for an expansion on the series. The idea was great, could have had more drive behind it.

Rhonda Jones says

Short but Hilarious

Oh my, talk about a party gone a wry. Good thing Jade has a sense of humor and an easy going nature.

Karen says

This was a perfect entry in the Jade Calhoun saga as she moves forward with her new life in New Orleans. This was an intimate look at all the mains as they come together to help Jade and Kane celebrate. Everyone is feeling the holiday spirit and Jade is just happy to be able to share her happiness with those she loves. Even though it is a short story it has the impact of a full length novel in both plot and character development. These characters are true to who they are and even though there are background people, who are never heard from, things move quickly from start to finish.

Jade and Kane are having their engagement/Christmas party at the house in the bayou that he did not really go to until he met Jade. Jade made a promise to Pyper that she would string mistletoe all around the house to make sure she had a chance to kiss Ian, and she has misplaced it. In order to locate it Jade decides to use magic, and we know how that can go for her. The spell is cast, the guests arrive, and the mishaps ensue.

This was a nice quick read that made me smile and shake my head. You would think Jade would learn, but then if she did we would not be so entertained. I would say fans should definitely read this!

Its a funny story, as usual the gangs all here and creating Chaos.. I mean it's magic what do we expect... And intrucing Camille who seems to have it out for Jane... Lol poor Jane can she catch a break? Oh who am I kidding this chick has it all.

I'd love a Dream walking fiancé... Read on people!

Rosemary says

The continuing story of Jade Calhoun and the chunky,sexy dream walker,Kane. In this short novella,you really fly thru the pages...and before you know it,it's done,leaving you wanting more..but then again so do her full length books,lol how can you not fall in love with all the wonderful characters ???? And yes,Kane is my book boyfriend so hands off ladies..lol

I have voluntarily read and reviewed a copy of Engaged off Bourbon Street given to me by the author.

Engaged off Bourbon Street is a short story in the Jade Calhoun series that takes place between Demons of Bourbon Street and Angels of Bourbon Street. In this short story we see what Jade can get herself up to during the Christmas holiday. This short story was just so cute and I really wish there had been more. I look forward to reading the next book in the series.

Karen says

So, ENGAGED off Bourbon Street makes it sound like we'll finally have happy times for Jade and the gang, right?

Ha.

You obviously haven't been following along if you think it's that easy.

Yep. Right from the very beginning Jade is wreaking havoc ... on herself.

It's a joint engagement/holiday party and she's still recovering (sort of) from the events of book 3. Of course, add to that the fact that she already has issues with spells going awry and ... well ... things go a more than a little haywire. Mistletoe is acting up, a ghost is floating around the party, and Jade is still the constant damsel-in-distress while trying to still manage everything ... and every body.

It's a comedy of errors, I suppose. Even for a short story it seemed to fly by too quickly to really feel worth it.

Arien/Sloan says

Super fun to read more about this series. Keep these coming!

Rebecca says

It was cute and I know that it was a novella, but it was the shortest novella I ever read, I don't read that quickly and I think I finished it in a half hour (maybe less) and it seemed to start and end extremely abruptly, which really sort of threw me off. I really like the other books in the series and I want to read #4, but this was just sort of random

Lauren Graham says

At what was supposed to be an engagement party for Kane and Jade, odd things start to happen in their new home. Jade unknowingly spells her friends and a ghost attached to the house is revealed.

This was the perfect short story for Jade and her friends. Nothing that they do can be uneventful. This short story had just as much fun and adventure as a full length Jade Calhoun novel.

Cheryl says

A humorous short but interesting story! Ghost can be frisky but this ghost, Camille , will not get the last word. Christmas is getting close and Jade and Kane are having a party at her new house with mistletoe and some interesting things are about to happen. Be care what you say or wish for,lol!
