They say you can't go home again, but when you're broke, down on your luck, and wanted in two states... it's the only place left.

Adelaide spent high school dreaming of the day she'd lift a middle finger to her small town life and watch it all fade away in the rear-view mirror. After marrying a man who she thought was her prince charming, Adelaide had finally gotten everything she ever wanted...until the silver spoon was ripped from her mouth and her prince was revealed to be just another cheating jackass. Suddenly homeless with nowhere else to turn, she must head back to the one place she never thought she'd have to show her face again.

Savannah just wanted to see the world, but ended up a twenty-five-year-old vagabond with nothing to show for her life but a string of loser ex-boyfriends. Instead of saving the planet, she sells jewelry on the internet and digs in the cushions for loose change. Making the decision to cut her losses, Savannah packs up and hits the road. It's time to go back to the beginning and figure out where she went wrong.

Adelaide and Savannah couldn't wait to leave the bayou. However, when circumstances force them out of their self-imposed exiles, they have no choice but to belly crawl back to the place they both turned their backs on. The Dubois sisters find that sometimes you've got to uncover your roots to find your future.

The good thing about hitting swamp bottom? There's only one way to go...

I just loved this book!! Two crazy southern sisters, a pot belly pig, a southern russian grandmother....Oh My!! It was laugh out loud funny!! I could just hear them talking in my head. I can't wait to see what crazy antics these two will continue to bring us!! Pour yourself a glass of sweet tea (side of moonshine optional) and don't miss this series!!

Jamie Ellis says

Great read

Loving the storyline so far....and loving the laugh out loud moments. You might not be drinking while reading this you might spew from busting out laughing in unexpected times.

Oh and the ex husband is the king of douchedom!!

Thanks Jamie Nibarger Ellis

I absolutely loved this book! Addy and Savvy are my new favorite sisters. They are so different, but together they are so much fun and they both come to life in the pages.

I am so curious what the heck happened between Zep and Addy. It is going to drive me crazy, but either way there is some hot tension between those two characters.

Also, why are they heading to New Orleans? Hopefully we will find out soon. Awesome read and highly recommend!!!

Get Ready For A Great Time!

This book was like an over the top, hilarious Soap Opera! I could hear the dramatic music in some scenes! These two sisters are on a hilarious trip of self discovery. The authors writing was extremely good, their styles meshed together so well, I couldn't tell when one or the other was writing, which gave the book a very good flow. It was fast paced, funny, and sweet, with some vulgar rolled in. I loved the book and can't wait for the rest! I highly recommend it!

Front Porches & Funerals is the first book I have read by Cora and K.A. This is the first book in the Swamp

Bottom series and it was Amazing! I loved it and laughed with Savvy and Addie. I can't wait to read more of the Swamp Bottom series.

Once I started this book I could not stop reading. It is a funny read about two sisters with completely different personalities. I can't wait for the next book in this series. I would recommend this book. It is a great short read. Be aware it ends in a cliff hanger. But the Author warns us of this. I loved it.

I was given an ARC in exchange for an honest review.

Tamara Harrington says

What an absolutely amazing book!! This story had me laughing from the first page and I loved every second of it. The DeBois sisters are about as opposite as could possibly be and that is what makes them so amazing to read about. This is a quick, sassy read that will have tears in your eyes from laughing so hard!!! This was just the first book in the series and I cannot wait for the next.

Hilarious! I want to take a road trip with my new book girlfriends.

This book did not disappoint. Holy WOW, it was hilarious, but poignantly touching as well. We meet two sisters who appear to be polar opposites, Adelaide, and Savannah, yet both share one thing in common - they have hearts of pure gold. Reading this book was like being in a bold, sassy kick ass movie. I can't wait for the next instalment!

This book speaks to me on so many levels. I honestly feel such a strong connection with this book. I can relate to both sisters though I am way more Savvy than I am Addie. I was also thrown into a business I knew nothing about after a death and went through I rough breakup before it. Like holy crap! The similarities are uncanny. I would totally own a pig and would come up with a crazy name like Kevin Junior Bacon Cheeseburger! I wanted to cry cause it reminded me so much of my life. Definitely a quick but fun read. Can't wait to continue on this journey with the girls

What happens when you team up to epic writers who just so happen to friends?
You get the Swamp Bottom Series, Front Porches and Funerals (book 1) written by Cora Kenborn and KA

Ware.

Let me tell you I devoured this book! This is a novella so it is a quick read. I was honored to receive an arc of this book. I fell in love with the southern charm and the sisters, one who is prim and proper and the other a free bird. As they meet back at their hometown due to family matters. What is in store for them? I will never tell get you copy now you don't want to miss out! The way these talented ladies wrote the story draws you in with that southern swamp magic that you can't help but feel like your part of it as sitting in the car with Kevin Junior Bacon Cheeseburger to sitting next to Babs drinking her stash. I was completely drawn into the story and could wait to finish reading it so I knew how things would end but now I really want the next book!!

Heather Matlock says

I have read this book actually twice. The side splitting laughter is so refreshing!

The collaboration between these two authors it's amazing. It's almost designed to write together. The way they play off of each other is readers gold!

Every character in this book is relatable one way or another. You can either see some of them in you or someone who you know... I know I have!

Adelaide is the careful sister. Conditioned by a man with a pedigree background and as shady as an umbrella. Sometimes living in a place like Sugarbirch doesn't really change who you are on the inside.. who she always was. All it took was a call from home.

Savannah is the wild free spirited sister. She is the one who stretches a dime to a dollar. She lives Day by day. Until she gets word to come back to Terrebonne parish. Savannah packs up her pig Kevin bacon Jr. cheeseburger hops in her mooch of a boyfriends shitty Van and heads home.

When theses two sisters reunite, the killer comedy and drama come alive! Mix in characters like Babs, Zep and officer Pope. Be prepared to camp out and power read.. seriously spectacular read!

Megan Jacob says

I was laughing hard through this whole book. I mean a acting snobby sister and her free going counterpart.

Adelaide the snobby sis looses herself for 10 years and comes home for a funeral. Savannah takes control of her life and helps adelaide figure out what she wants and is. the pet pig and roots returning makes this extremely well written and funny. this is an honest review for a copy I was given.

Coralee Corrigan says

Loved it

Romaine Heart says

This book is fabulous! I could not stop laughing! Stuck up Addie and wild Savvy return to their home town to attend their grandfather's funeral. Both ending their terrible relationships with men.

Kevin Junior Bacon Cheeseburger is adorable.

Savvy meets hot Officer Pope. Addie is now working with her enemy since high school, Zep.

I can't wait for next book!! I'm volunteering to leave for an advance readers copy.

Arien/Sloan says

A tale of two sisters, absolutely loved it. The difference between the two may seem immense but family always comes first. This was witty and fun, I look forward to seeing if there will be more shenanigans with these two!
