"Brushstrokes" by Richelle Mead in Dreams and Desires

This short story tells the story of succubus Georgina, back when she lived during the Italian Renaissance. "Brushstrokes" follows Georgina as she takes on the identity of Bianca, a noblewoman in Florence, during the middle of the Bonfire of the Vanities--a time when many great works of art and literature were destroyed. Georgina soon finds herself working with a sexy artist who's intent on saving Florence's art, no matter the risk.

Jess (Gone with the Words) says

Richelle Mead's Georgina (Succubus) short story is so great!

Tracy says

I'm rating this a 5 based on Richelle Mead's Brushstrokes.

Margaret says

The only part of this book I read was the Richelle Mead short, Brushstrokes. I enjoyed the story, even though it wasn't anything new. I remember the story being a part of another one of the series. It was a bit disjointed, but it was nice to read the story from Georgina's past.

Monkeegurl says

If you're reading this for Richelle Mead's story, she incorporated it in Succubus Shadoews
