From Reader Review Durarara!! Saika Arc, Vol. 2 for online ebook

Lara says

Ehhhh...something about this one seemed less entertaining than previous volumes. It felt a little too choppy or something, I don't know. And the demon blade seems kind of ridiculous. I'll keep reading, because I assume this will be just as short as the original series, but I hope the next volume is a little more fun.

Holly says

Again, same as the first volume: The art is nice, but it does lack that fluidity for the fight scenes which I really loved about the anime. One tiny nitpick I have about the art style, though, is that everyone seems much younger than they are – particularly Izaya. But there were some highlights – any time that Shizuo gets to show off and be a bad-ass is way beyond awesome in my book. Though I think I'm biased there.

Sara says

Very good, very exciting! There's a cliff hanger in this one. Have to move on to the next one.

What's going to happen to the teenager whose teacher has a crush on her (creepy, creepy)? And what's going on with the Saika blade? All unexpected for me.

There was a chase scene in here, looks like we'll have more in the next volume.

Emmanuelle says

Oh man! This story just gets better and better!

Another great volume, and the stakes are pushed even higher. Plus, 1 more Celty. Can't go wrong with more Celty in my opinion...
