Let Me Show You Real Love Jasmine Williams

Keilana is the embodiment of everything that her mother, Michelle, hated. Most people believed that Michelle was jealous of her own daughter because she was beautiful, intelligent, and Keilana wasn't washed-up like herself. Over the years, Michelle had let many men run through her, and she didn't have anything to show for it. In Michelle's mind, Keilana looked down on her and thought she was better. Michelle did everything in her power to make sure that nobody ever had anything good to say about Keilana. She wanted the world to see her through the same negative eyes that she did.

'The devil's child' is what Michelle called Keilana, because she felt that she was only brought into her life as an eternal punishment. Michelle has been keeping the paternity of Keilana's father a secret from her and everyone else around her. Omitting that major detail opens up a big can of worms that Michelle may not be able to clean up.

Keilana's best friend, Tashira, is always there to get her through tough times. When the two of them hanging on the block turns into a brawl, things go from bad to worse for Keilana. She had no idea how things go in the streets, but she's going to get a big dose of hood reality.

Kameron, aka Kam is Tashira's cousin who happens to be at the right place at the right time. Him and Keilana didn't start off on a good note, and she wasn't interested in trying to get to know him. Kam was persistent in his approach, and he slowly started to peel back the layers of Keilana. Once she let him all the way in, there was no turning back for her. She wanted him for herself, and she would do what she had to do to get that. The only question is, will Kam be down to ride for her when the beef she dished out comes right back to her front door and is ready to take her life?

Secrets will be exposed and blood will be spilled, but will Keilana be able to depend on her man to keep her alive?

Love Has No Age

While most stories jump right into adulthood this one takes you on a journey through teenage years. Keilana is pretty and smart, yet being the reflection of a dark past subjects her to constant abuse. The embrace of love is not something she is accustomed to. When home life and street life mix, Keilana gets fed up. Retaliation from a street fight, may have led to unexpected casualties. In the midst of all this a bond is made, one Keilana never dreamed up. Then reality hits her at an instant, one she was not ready for, heck I wasn't ready for it either.

This story brings real life to a urban fiction world. It captures the readers attention with that knowing feeling. The pages feel human, the struggle, the anger, the relationship battles, the constant reminder of what if, and when it will happen. These things are all in this storyline. Who's going to be the saving grace, will she fight, will she run, will she just stay. Will her people turn on her, is ready to find her truth. You get a natural sense of emotion, you feel the aggression, you feel the friendship, but mostly you get to feel the love.

Awesome read!!!

This was such a great book from beginning to end... This book has a lot of realistic qualities in life. Everyone doesn't have the best life. It's how you make it. The characters were all developed and the storyline flowed. Ms. Williams is a great author and I've read several of her books. I definitely cannot wait for part 2!

Taz Will says

Enjoyed the read but I wanted to see more from Keilana to get out of situation. The whole Fresh thing was kind of silly, I think that could've been better played out, so readers can understand what or why he did what he did from his point of view. The ending was good though, so I'll be waiting for the next one.
