I Keep My Feelings On Safety KB Cole

Zaphyre's not like most women. The things that excite her aren't love, fine jewels, or designer labels. No, what makes Zaphyre happy is killing. The only thing she needs from a man is sex. She doesn't want love and she makes that known to every man she meets. Yet, there comes a time in every woman's life when she's ready to settle down. Zaphyre's problem is that chooses a man whose off-limits to settle down with.

?To say that Dripp has trust issues would be the understatement of the year. His family's ready for him to settle down but that's the last thing on his mind. When they start setting him up on blind dates, he stops coming over. All he needs from a woman is sex so he only messes with women who want the same. The problem is every woman says she can handle a relationship that's strictly sexual, but they always catch feelings.

?When these two cross paths, Dripp doesn't trust her but he's attracted to her, and Zaphyre tries her best to avoid him. Until they bump into each other a second time and they can't deny the attraction. Dripp finally meets a woman who really only wants him for one thing, but when she leaves him, he can't stop thinking about her. Will they be able to give each other what they need? Will Zaphyre finally let someone in? Keeping your feelings on safety will keep you from being hurt, but it will also keep you from knowing true love. What will be Zaphyre's chose?

Bored

This book bored me. It was just too much going on and dragged to get my attention. I loved the bond the twins had they were my favorite, whereas Mon just irked my nerves to the end.

BookPlugJai says

KB never fails this book was so good. Bossy was that chick. I loved her with Dripp because he made her show her softer side. Dripp might've been in the streets but you could tell he loved his family and would do anything to protect them. I can't wait for part 2 to see what happens next cause that ending was everything.

Tunnion Peters says

Book worm

I can't believe Mon would do Zaphyre the way he did ruined everyone her just because his ass was jealous. Lawd I hope Zaphyre doesn't die and I hope Dripp had nothing to do with shooting her and I hope the baby makes it.
