A Most Curious Collection Jacqueline Barden

Ghosts, a gargoyle and an evil clown are just some of the strange things you'll encounter in this new collection of short fiction from author Jacqueline Barden. Find out what happens when a girl moves into a haunted house, a boy gets sucked into his phone, and a demon butcher moves into the neighborhood!

Each of these bizarre tales of the supernatural is accompanied by a "curiograph," a unique photographic collage, which will leave you questioning what is and isn't real.

Be warned! You won't want to read these stories before bedtime!

Short weird stories

I really liked this quick read. All the stories were a little strange. But not so strange that you couldn't let a child read them . In fact they might enjoy them
