Trill Love: An Urban Romance Coco Shawnde

The West-Daniels brothers live an extravagant lifestyle, and the streets of Dallas has never quite seen a hood mentality like theirs. Hasaun "Hollywood" and Samondré "Chevy" have every right to walk around with their cocky demeanors. Even though these brothers live in the D, they have Louisiana blood pumping through their veins.

Chevy is recently home from doing a ten-year bid in a state maximum security prison. The prison life has hardened him and caused him to repress his feelings and emotions, but now that he is home with his family and children, he has to readjust. To welcome him home, Hollywood puts together a block party with the help of their sister, Len'Yae. What was supposed to have been a private dance from one of the strippers, turned into something far more.

Meechie Bell is able to relate to Chevy's current situation due to her own incarceration, and starts to find herself captivated by Chevy's callous attitude. When he places a proposition in front of her, Meechie takes the offer, even knowing the work she puts in for Chevy could be detrimental to her probation and her freedom. Her stripping days seem to die as she spends more time with Chevy. These two struggle to find a medium when it comes to business and their personal situation.

Len'Yae only has one true friend, and that's Mizhani, Meechie's younger sister. Mizhani has history with Hollywood, but tries to avoid rekindling their past. She is a true bombshell and has a hustle to match. The last thing she wants is to be burned once again by Hollywood's womanizing ways.

Will Meechie come out on top like she always has when pressed to the limit? Is Chevy man enough to accept all of Meechie and learn to get rid of his cold ways? Mizhani has to decide to either follow her heart of possibly lose out on a good thing. In this southern tale of fast money, cars and women, loyalty is tested and bonds are pushed to their limit. Find out if these young lovers will find their way to each other, or just let it all go.

What's Up With The Ghetto Character Names

Man the author should have included a page of pronunciations for all these ghetto ass character names. Like seriously. I don't understand Mizhani and Hollywood's relationship. The book is aight. Kept me reading I guess.

Taz Will says

These names are so distracting it's annoying. I'm not sure where the relationships are going but I'll be okay if they just get in the same book. The story needs work overall so I'm trying to stick it out for the next one.

Great Read!!!!

Wow that book was so good. I can't believe all the drama outta all these relationships. I love how all the girls get along are there for each other no matter what. I love the connection Mizhani has with Hollywood. The love they have between each other is how me and my ex was. I love the relationship with them I just hope they get it together. Lord Meechie and Chevy be getting on my nerves for real. I don't agree with the way he talks to her and does her. But if you keep going back that's the way things are gonna be. Len'Yae and Tango are cute as hell to me but I wish they would get it together too. I can't believe how she did him with that bleach she is crazy. Now Tweet and Boone lol wow I'dk wat to say. They are really crazy. And Redd is just a dead beat mother for real the kids deserve so much better. That ending was definitely not expected but I can't wait for part two
