This was a pretty good box set from 5 great authors, a few that were new to me. I very much enjoyed it! I voluntarily reviewed an advanced copy of this book.

Unprotected by Cassandra Dee - O. M. G. Cassandra, I swear, just keeps getting hotter and dirtier!!! This one is about an older man that needs a wife to get control of his company. Maggie is an 18 yr old innocent that is just trying to make her dreams come true. A chance meeting and these two set a scorching path through NYC!! Heat, sex, lies, misunderstandings, 1 missed period and things begin to fall apart. But a fantastic, and beautifully dirty, HEA is around the corner!! Fantastic read and a great continuation of the 69th St. Bad Boys series of books!

Family Matters by Katie Ford - Joshua and Naomi are thrown into a situation together that they NEVER expected. But even more unexpected were the feelings they began to have and the changes in their relationship.

Extreme Close Up by Sarah May - Lilah and Trace are given a do over. They never got together in high school because they were too different. Now they are on the same playing field. Overall a good book and very very steamy, but felt a little high schoolish on the maturity scale.

Rags To Riches by Kendall Blake - Lexi and Ryan have one hot night of passion not realizing what the next day will bring. This was a very hot book with some mild BDSM.

Dad's Valentine's Set-Up by Penny Close - My favorite book in this box set and the most emotional. Kyle and Sarah meet in a very unusual way and try to develop a relationship despite very big obstacles. This was about loss and love, triumph and tragedy. A fantastic book.

Sara Oxton says

Love Unbound was a flirty filled four-star read. There are three stories and all had their own good points and bad, Unprotected by Cassandra Dee was a story I had already read, reviewed and enjoyed previously, then there was Family Matters by Katie Ford one of the better of the bunch on this occasion, what a story, its essentially two spoilt brats and an arranged marriage but it was so much more, funny and flirty and filled with great story. Extreme Close up by Sarah May a great story, this one deserved five-stars. Lila gave Trace as good as he was used to giving it.

All great reads and all worth the read, a great way to get hot and steamy ready for a night of romance with someone or alone.

Unprotected

Maggie is a sales person at a pet store while going to school to become a vet. Evan is a wealthy businessman wanting to take control over the family company. He stops in the pet store one day when his sister leaves her dog with him with very little supplies for it. When Maggie hears a kid and parent freaking out she rushes in to see what's wrong. Calming the dog down and defusing the situation Maggie then asks Evan is there anything she could help him with. When her manager tries to step in Evan's not having it he only wants Maggie's help. When Evan returns Maggie is startled by his proposition to be his fake fiancé. In order to take over the company his father has made it clear his has to settle down so to get what his wants he'll do anything including marrying Maggie then getting a divorce once he has what he wants. What neither counting on was the electric attraction between them and for feelings to become a part of the deal. When a misunderstanding happens Maggie takes off however what she doesn't realize is that she's carrying Evan's baby when she goes. Will Evan find Maggie and claim her and their baby?

I love this series each author brings their own unique style to it. I couldn't put it down once I started. I can't wait for the next installment. I would recommend this to anyone that loves a great story.

Family Matters

Joshua and Naomi have always had a dislike of each without really having a reason. Their parents have wanted them together since they were children and now have gathered them to issue an ultimatum. They either marry each other or lose their trust funds. Neither knows what to do so they agree and head off to a beach house where once they are alone things change drastically for them. However can their attraction be enough of a reason to marry like their parents want?

Extreme Close-Up

Lila is a plus size model and Trace is a sought after photographer. What neither realized was that they have a shared history the went to school together. Lila was a book worm and Trace was the popular athlete. When they reconnect the chemistry between them is intense and they get caught up in each other. Will they be able to make this interlude into something more?

Rags To Riches

Ryan and Lexi use the Tinder up to find a hook up and end up sharing an amazing night together. However the last thing Lexi expected when she met the newest intern to their magazine was for it to be her hook up. This sizzle in the office as Lexi and Ryan continue to see each other. But can they make something serious from the way they started?

Dad's Valentine Setup

Sarah's dad is very ill and Sarah bought him an ipad to help keep him entertained while she works. What she didn't expect was for him to put an ad up to find her a man. Kyle is intrigued when he talks to Sarah's father and agrees to meet her. Sarah and Kyle have an instant connection and start dating. But her father's illness worsens and causes Sarah to push Kyle away. Will Kyle convince Sarah to be with him?

This was an amazing box set its rare when you like every story included but that the case for me. Once I started I couldn't put it down. You definitely won't regret buying this book.

I voluntarily read and reviewed this book. I enjoyed it so much I bought my own copy.

Cynthia says

As, there are so many books in this set each will be graded then a over all grade given once completely read.

Unprotected By: Cassandra Dee - 4 Stars

Fairy tale based loosely on Cinderella with a REAL outlook on the story! While it does have a whole lot of crass talking for such an alpha male its not bad. Just like he does not have a silver spoon in his mouth. So it sort of sucks back on its self which takes away from the story line a tad bit.

You have a upright young lady who is a virgin with a rich make who has the mouth from the gutter. While the story is an original ideal. It would have been nice for the male part to be a bit less crass.

Bonus Scene 1 By: Cassandra Dee - 5 Stars

I actually love the start of this bonus scene and wish the author had used it in the book. Heck, I am not sure why the author cut this Bonus out of the book as it fits more with the book then the other one I read.

Bonus Scene 2 By: Cassandra Dee - 5 Stars

Another scene the author left out of the story and such a shame as I like it a whole lot more then what is in the story. It would have glued a few things into place that where missing in the story.

Family Matters By: Katie Ford

April Symes says

This is an anthology of steamy reads by some awesome authors- Cassandra Dee, Katie Ford , Penny Close, Jenna James & Sarah May. The stories in this anthology will leave you breathless and will leave you overheated after reading these stories. The stories are some delicious dreamy stories that are great to go to bed to...Stuff only to dream off to, if you know what I mean. You have 5 authors that have taken romance and lustiness to the extremes to come out with a killer romance for Valentine's Day. You have alpha males and sassy heroines that come together to give some seriously hot reads; if you are looking for something that wouldn't cause weight gain but definitely is super sweet, supremely hawt and steamy, then you have this for your pleasure!

My Rating: 4.5 stars *****

"I received an advanced copy of this book from the author at no cost to me."

R.K. Tejaswi says

This is a box set collection as Valentine's day special, before the day of love starts and gets treated by the five really amazing authors and their stories. All five books are different themes and give different flavors of love.

In Unprotected, Evan meets Maggie, a vet student, when he arrives at the pet store she is working at and gets attracted towards her, returns to her with a proposition to be his fake fiancée that could help him to take over his father's company. But they get together, their attraction heats up but she leaves when a misunderstanding peaks their door but with his baby. What will Evan do when he learns she has his baby is the remaining story.

Family Matters is the story of enemies turn lovers, Joshua and Naomi, who hate each other has no way to agree to the arranged marriage by their parents or to give up their funds. But a night at a beach house changes everything, will their attraction change their arranged marriage into love ?

Extreme Close-Up, a second chance romance when Lila and Trace who had a history during their high school meet again as model and the photographer, the chemistry is gets rekindled

Rags to Riches is the story where dating app hook up helps Ryan and Lexi find their real love of life. A Tinder date that ends in a hot night, the next Lexi finds Ryan as the new intern in her office and a hot office romance heats up.

Dad's Valentine Setup is a match maker story where Sarah's dad plays her cupid when he puts an advertisement to find her man, which turns out to be Kyle. Kyle instantly likes Sarah's father and agrees to meet, when he does he gets more than he expected for, they are attracted and start dating. Will Sarah's dad's sickness end up their things or peak into a new life is the story

Melanie says

Unprotected by Cassandra Dee was wonky for me.

The story line itself was fun and sexy. Maggie, a young virgin that comes from humble roots, and is working at a pet shop while paying her way through school and Evan the billionaire that sees what he wants in more ways than one and does what he needs to in order to take it.

For me though the use of words like anus and rectum in place of ass or butt, boobies coming from an Alpha male's mouth, or comments like filled with his male jizz and I wanted the female just spoiled it for me.

Reading "I growled" after so many of Evan's statements. I mean I love to read about a man growling out his words when he is pissed or turned on but the way it was used in this book seemed out of place most of the time, like when talking about the driver being able to find a parking spot, just weird phrasing. To read a what would be a hot scene if it was not for the wording like stick it in my anus. I just felt off, the terminology was just silly more what I would expect out of teenagers writing. The story line has potential and I kept reading because of the story it's self. Just my 2 cents worth, but everyone likes something different.

Family Matter by Katie Ford was a quick quirky story.

Naomi & Joshua get blindsided by a set up from both their parents. They have decided their children (26 & 30) should be married and join the family businesses. They do not care much for each other, but they do not know each other either. A forced week in a beach house lets them discover each other and see that they have more in common than they think starting with hot chemistry. This was a cute read with some lol moments and hot passion at the same time.

Extreme Close-Up by Sarah May

Trace and Lila go to high school together but they never met running in different circles. Lila the quite girl that studied and did not date, a complete opposite from Trace who played football and had plenty of hookups. As life goes, people grow up. She becomes a plus size model who is confident in who she is, and has no problems with casual hookups with strangers she sometimes does not even know their names. Trace becomes a photographer in LA. From the first hand shake their connection is electric.

The story of the shy nerdy girl getting the high school heart throb is not a new story but this one was written a little different and I found myself laughing alot at some of the interactions. The only issues I had with it was the way the sexual scenes were written, the wording once again in this book seemed like something a teenager would come up with. It's not that the scenes were written badly, quite the opposite. It was the word selection, this is to be people in their late 20's early thirty's. so lush boobies just does not seem to fit in the way that they would talk in the heat of passion or him saying the female was so tiny or the female screaming my name in ecstasy. It just drops the vibe for me.

Unprotected- Cassandra Dee

God, I love Cassandra! This is such a great Cinderella story. Maggie is working to go to school and make her life better when her prince charming walks into the pet store she works at. Evan is no prince charming, he is in need of a woman to be his fake fiance so he can get into his dads CEO seat. Not only is Evan a dirty player inside the boardroom he is also that way in the bedroom! As always Cassandra brings the heart and heat into this book! Love it.

Family Matters- Katie Ford

This was a pretty good story. Two people Joshua and Naomi have known each other since they were just kids. Their parents have wanted them together forever but both have wanted nothing to do with their parent's plans. But when they are both threatened to have their trust funds taken away unless they spend a week together and see where it goes they decide they have no choice.

I enjoyed this novella and the ending is pretty good.

Extreme Close-Up- Sarah May

This was an interesting take on a teenage crush coming back into your life that had no idea you were even alive then and now wants you for what you are now. For all your insecurities coming forward and making sure they don't take over your life again. Lila has made a name for herself being a plus-size model when Trace, the high school god comes back into her life as the photographer for her next shoot. He has no idea who she is at first but the chemistry is off the charts. So when he starts giving her his time and the sex is great. Lila doesn't know if it's her looks or her that he is falling for.

A really wonderful story for all those girls that wonder what would happen if that one boy came back into her life now and saw them differently.

Rags to Riches- Kendall Blake

This one was different for me. I am not really into the woman being the aggressor. Ryan and Lexi meet on Tinder and have a wonderful hot night. Not knowing that Ryan the next day will be her new intern. And even though they both want to forget their extremely hot night together Lexi can't seem to not stay away from him.

Again this one didn't really do it for me. Lexi is the dominant in this book, which is fine. But I am not into reading books like that. So not a big read for me.

Dad's Valentine's Set up- Penny Close

This is a shorter read. But good. I enjoyed the story between Sarah and Kyle, even if her dad did start the whole romance. Good story to end the box set.

Amara says

Goddamn Cassandra Dee. I checked this out thinking I'd just skip her stories because she's a fucking terrible author. Who the hell keeps calling their heroine or hero "the brunette", "the alpha", and says "fuckstick", "twat", etc? This author. She fucking loves it. All her characters are the same. Anywho....

I thought I'd just skip her story and move along to the next authors. NO. Because they're all her! And her dumb pen names? Why bother having them if you write the exact same way? "Katie Ford"? She also calls her characters "the brunette" and say things like "twat" and "man meat".

DNF. My very first one. I knew it would either be Dee or Madison Faye who would give me my first DNF. And that pisses my OCD off. HARD. But my New Year's resolution was stop reading these authors that piss me off.

Tiffany says

This is a fantastic collection of stories!! I found myself a couple new authors to look into reading. I definitely recommend reading this anthology.

Unprotected by Cassandra Dee was a steamy fake fiance, secret baby, Cinderella type story. Maggie and Evan had instant chemistry and steamed up the pages.

Family Matters by Katie Ford gives us Naomi and Joshua, who grew up together. Despite their parents wanting them to get together, they weren't interested. Could it be that parents really know best?

Extreme Close Up by Sarah May was a sexy story of a plus size model and her high school crush, the hot and popular football star. Now that Lila is no longer invisible to Trace can she trust that he likes her for her or is it just because of her model looks?

Rags to Riches by Kendall Blake is a hot twist on the boss/employee office romance story. Lexi and Ryan have a steamy Tinder hookup one night. Could it possibly turn into more though, especially when it turns out that Lexi is Ryan's new boss?

Dad's Valentine's Set Up by Penny Close was a sweet and emotional story. Sarah and Kyle were perfect together, and I loved the fact it all started because of her dad. This is the first story I've read by this author, but I'll be looking for more.

I received a free copy of this book via Booksprout and am voluntarily leaving a review. This is my honest review.

This is a good set of stories from five great authors. They have hot alphas and the women who love them. Unprotected- Maggie is working at PuppyMart and going to college to become a vet. When she hears a disturbance between a mother, child and dog she runs up front. She diffused the situation and calms the dog down. Then she looks at the owner and sees Evan. She thinks he is gorgeous, but knows he wouldn't like someone like her. Maggie helps him get things for the dog. After their meeting, Evan can't stop thinking about her. He goes to see her back at her job and makes her a proposition. He will pay her to be his fiancée for a month so he can become CEO of his family's company. She agrees, trying to remember it is fake, but it ends up becoming real for both Evan and Maggie. She has fallen for him hook, line and sinker. When a misunderstanding happens, Maggie leaves and leaves no trace of where she went. Will Evan be able to find Maggie, convince her to come back to him and have her believe that he really does love her? The chemistry between Evan and Maggie is hot, hot, hot.

Family Matters- Joshua and Naomi have known each other since birth and as they grew up, they started to dislike each other more and more. Their parents have come up with a plan. They need to spend a week together in the Hamptons and get to know each other. By the end of the week they are supposed to be engaged so they can get married in a year. If they don't, they lose their trust funds. At first they can't stand to be around each other but they start to get closer. Is a week enough time to get to know each other? Even though they have great sexual chemistry, is it enough to get married?

Bundle Of Love For Valentine's Day

We have five wonderful stories here by Cassandra Dee, Katie Ford, Sarah, May, Kendall Blake and Penny Close all surrounding Valentine's Day which makes it extra special for me as I got married on Valentine's Day to my gorgeous hubby! Cassandra and Katie are authors that I've loved and enjoyed reading their fun and often dirty, sexy stories. Sarah, Kendall and Penny are all new to me but I will certainly be looking for more stories by them as the ones in this fantastic sexy bundle are really great. The basis of each story is a strong alpha male who is swept up in lust leading to love by feisty female leads who bewitch them completely. Don't expect perfection in the heroes and heroines as you won't find it in any of the stories. What you will find are characters who are perfect for each other. The heroines are not all stick thin, not all in very important and high pay jobs, not all wealthy, but they are all ready to be loved even if they didn't realise it before. Settle yourself down with a nice drink and have a fan at the ready when the passions rise and don't let your Kindle overheat as you don't want to miss the epilogues that are SO GOOD and finish the stories off very nicely. These stories are downright sexy with some erotic scenes that may make you blush, but they will certainly encourage you to continue reading as they are so addictive and so much fun that you won't want to miss out on anything if you're like me. I think it's fairly certain that I will be re-reading these five stories again as they delivered exactly what I expected: fun, passion, the chase, even more lust all leading to romance, I was entertained and enjoyed all five of the stories and I can't choose a favourite - although Mr Lincoln could very well be my number 1 hero in the stories ;)
