Destined To Win: How to Embrace Your God-Given Identity and Realize Your Kingdom Purpose Kris Vallotton , Lisa Bevere (Foreword)

Pastor and cofounder of the Bethel School of Ministry Kris Vallotton walks Christians through the profound process of discovering their true identity and experiencing the wonder of their kingdom purposes.

Christians are often told that they were born with a purpose that reaches beyond their human strivings, but most are not sure how to break past the daily struggles holding them back, much less how to fully step into their callings.

As a pastor and the cofounder of the Bethel School of Ministry, Kris Vallotton has been teaching Christians all over the world how to walk in wholeness and purpose for more than seventeen years. In Destined to Win, he passes on the lessons that will help readers discover who they really are, overcome destructive behaviors, and become equipped for their kingdom purposes.

Confronting the challenges that limit Christians—such as living shackled by past pain, fear, and unforgiveness—Vallotton offers practical solutions to the often-complex problems that undermine their destinies and derail their purposes. With personal stories and biblical teaching, Destined to Win combines practical wisdom and profound revelation to unlock the latent potential present in each person.

Mirko says

One of the best books I have ever read!
Brilliant, inspirational and easy to read. Highly recommend.

Regina Kitto says

Great book just what I needed

Alex Camaerei says

An excellent read

Kris gives divine success keys throughout this entire book. It helped me to think bigger and think about ways to use my fittings in the marketplace.

Trenton Mcclellan says

Great Book!

I'd say it definitely challenges how you see yourself in a way that helps you to grow spiritually and as a person, redefining who you are and giving you tools to find your people and your calling

Katie says

I loved this book! Gave me many things to think on and mull over in my own life. Realizing that I am Destined to Win is a powerful concept and I would highly recommend this book!

Daunavan Buyer says

This was a really good book! Really grounded in scripture and filled with practical and theological ideas for living out of your calling. Highlighted a TON!

Melissa says

Kris knows how to put his passion into his books. This is the second book I have read by him and I enjoyed both very much.

He does a great job of sharing personal stories and sharing from the Word. For me that is what draws me into a non-fiction book.

I loved hearing about how he met Bill Johnson. That was an amazing story and his obedience is something that should inspire us all.

He reminds us that when we know who we are we will live as if we are destined to win because we are. We just need to grab a hold of that truth. Reading this book will stir you up and spur you to greater living through Jesus Christ.

A copy of this book was given to me. All opinions are my own.

Ruth Ropper says

Excellent book for going deeper into your walk with God and what he has planned for you. Needed to read it twice as there was so much in it to take in the first time! A lot about leadership and developing wise council around you in your leadership journey.

Amy says

Another good one from Kris. Very thought-provoking concerning self perception and our destiny in the Kingdom!

Michael Newville says

A bit slow of a read at some points, but nonetheless essential for any in a leadership position.

The humble heart and caring spirit within Kris is evident, and creates a desire to display that in your leadership role wherever God has called you.

He gives insights from his own journey and walk, as well as Biblical truths to support.

I've been in leadership at 24 years old in Youth With A Mission in New Zealand for 3 years now. And the information given here is already helping heaps at my pioneering base. To serve, love, and (what I needed most) continue to receive vision for the future and what God has ahead.

A great book, essential for any future leaders (of ministry or just business), but not too essential for any just looking for a good read.

Andy Stinespring says

Incredible look that shifts your mindset to operating from the place of victory rather than fighting for destiny and gives you ways to remain in this.

Lauren Miller says

A beautiful reminder of who we are in Christ.

Noah Hutchison says

Great read

Empowering and biblical; great addition to the content Kris has written over the years. Grab a copy today and enjoy.

Tina says

I love this book, I've read it twice and each time it was amazing. If you have questions about your identity and purpose in life, this book is a go too. It explains everything so well with the scripture so that you can have a better understanding. I also like that Kris Vallotton uses his personal example to help you understand certain concepts that he talks about. Overall, I highly recommend this book.

Andre says

Another life changing book by Kris Vallotton, I love this guy!
