Thump Thump is the story of the bond between a mother and her child from the womb through the different stages of childhood into adulthood. When her daughter is faced with adversity she is reminded of her mother's words, "That is my heart, wherever you go, it goes with you. I'll be here, I'll be there, I'll be everywhere." The sound of her heart, Thump Thump, reassures the girl that her mother is always near and gives her the confidence to be brave and face her fears. It is a full circle story teaching children about rhyming and confidence, reassuring them to follow their heart.
