[Siren LoveXtreme Forever ManLove: Erotic Alternative Fantasy Menage Romance, M/M/M/M/M/M, angels, HEA]

A week to prepare for battle hardly seems like much, but a week is all Madigan Parker and his lovers have to prepare for the battle to save Urun. Awakening Madigan's powers is just the beginning as the former baker gives himself over to the trainers to make him the leader of an army before the week is out. Practicing with Scepta enables him to achieve more than he ever thought possible, but new power brings new gifts and problems that he wasn't expecting to deal with.

As Madigan learns more about himself and his angelic powers, his lovers try to hold the fear of failure at bay as they work toward their goals. When Madigan finally starts to believe that he might actually be able to win the unwinnable, his lovers reluctantly start to feel that same hope. However, as the pawns fall neatly into place, unexpected challengers and new allies may end the war before it's even begun.

Ohhhhhhhh my ohhhh my ohhh my..... I have been waiting (kinda patiently... ok not patiently at all!!) for another angel hit to calm my addiction and as always Jana did not dissapoint!! I loves these boys and the story is now at the bite your nails whilst sitting on the edge of your seat and accidently peeing your pants if your not careful stage. As normal im going to give nothing away if you want a fantastic story - beautiful characters, steamy scenes that are Hawt with a capital H - An epic story that will leave you panting for more..... Then read this book - If you haven't read the series so far - why the hell not!! Buy your copies now you will not be disapointed.

I cant wait for the next instalment - though im sooo not happy about the title and what that could mean for my boys sniff sniff.

This story is part of a series and must be read in order. Madigan, Cross, Bren, Michel, Yuri and Dex are gearing up for the coming war with Azrael and his Hunters. All the angels are finding it hard to allow Madigan into danger but they know he has to open his powers and gain control of them if they are to win, they are all feeling the pressure but as more angels are pledged to fight by the Archangels they begin to feel hope. Surprise allies come into play but first Madigan has to prove his worth and if he doesn't learn to call upon his powers the war maybe over even before it has begun.

This is a great addition to the His Guardian Angels series with the war rapidly approaching Madigan and his angels manage to still find time to love. As the war approaches Madigan and his angels discover that they have many more allies than they ever imagined, Madigan has to open his powers and with the help of allies old and new he begins to get a grip on them. Cross, Bren, Michel, Dex and Yuri find they have lots to keep them occupied as they help to train the Nephilim for the upcoming battle, but the fear that Madigan isn't going to be ready lingers.

Oh damn this is a steamy addition to the series which is packed with surprises. Jana Downs pulls out all the stops as sides are taken and allies are forged as the war approaches, she has given us something to look forward to as Madigan's powers come to the fore. We see our favorite angels coming together in support and love, we see them handling their fears with a reaffirmation of their love and we watch as amazing allies come to their aid. Their sex lives don't falter one bit as Madigan uses his powers in a sensual way and boy are they smoking hot. The ending is one that you want to choke the author for.... I wanted to cry in sheer frustration.

I recommend this to those that love mixing it up with your paranormals, watching as your pages start to smoke because of the hot sex, seeing the army come together and a pure frustrating ending that ends much to soon.

well today i completed the whole 5 parts the novel was good, now i am waiting for the sixth parts, fifth part was lasted on a very crucial moments. Now i am very curious to know what gonna happen in this war, want to know more about Scepta and Rhapel and also about christian, that who he will ended with. Because it seems he is a very nice person.

I hope there wont be any sad ending...

Ok. I'm not sure if I was reading because I liked it, or because I hated it. Maybe a bit of both. But now I'm livid. The series was NEVER FINISHED!!!! I shit you not (sorry for the language). I got to the end of this book and it mentions the next book that didn't come out!!! I will never know how it ended. I truly wish the lack of a final book had been obvious BEFORE I invested time and money in reading this series.

"I don't know if I want to be a warrior," Madigan whispered. "I just want to go home and live with you guys."

Jana Downs' Angelic Alliances is book five of the His Guardian Angels series. The book is definitely not stand-alone; you have to read the series from the beginning or else you'll be lost – AND you'll miss some hot man on manx5 lovin'!

Madigan Parker was raised by a loving, single mom and was shocked to find out that his father is the archangel, Raphael. In book one, Madigan meets his father and his husbands/mates, Yuri, Michel, Bren, Dex, and Cross, all of whom are "children" of the other archangels.

In Angelic Alliances, Madigan is training for the upcoming war to save Urun (I'm still not quite sure what Urun represents but liken it to a type of Heaven...whatever it is, it works). The training is physically and mentally intense as some higher beings don't believe Madigan has what it takes to be a ruthless and tough leader, regardless of who his dad is.

Madigan proves them all wrong – even his husbands – with a little help from a demon and an angelic figure. Still...is it enough to save his loved ones and win the war?? Guess I'll have to wait for book six!

Madigan is cute, naïve, and innocent. His angelic husbands are gorgeous, powerful, smart, and completely, totally in love with Madigan and each other. This is only one reason I read all of Jana Downs' books. I love the men who talk to her and beg for their stories to be told. Her books are always on my TBR list!
