Whistleblower

by Tess Gerritsen

Victor Holland's story sounded like the raving of a man at the brink of madness, but his status as a hunted man was supported by the haunted look in his eyes -- and the bullet hole in his shoulder. One look at his fog-shrouded form told Cathy this sexy stranger needed her help.

Mirror, Mirror

by Stella Cameron

Jack Irving was dangerous, and Lauren tried her hardest to ignore his overtures, until he produced his deadliest weapon . . . a kiss. What did Jack really have in mind? It was time Lauren took control of the situation, and she knew exactly what she had to do!

Lover, Stranger

by Amanda Stevens

Attacked and left for dead, Dr. Ethan Hunter awoke to no memory and a strange face in the mirror. Something in Ethan urged him to protect Grace Donovan from the man she sought -- her sister's killer -- but as the clues unraveled, he began to fear he might be saving her from himself . . .

Debby says

"Whistleblower" by Gerritsen - Catherine Weaver is divorced and on her way to her friend Sarah's house in northern CA, when a man stumbles into the road in front of her and begs for help. She takes him to the hospital and goes on to her friend. The next morning, Sarah and her unborn child have been murdered and Cathy and Victor Holland are on the run - he's a scientist who's uncovered some deadly secrets and the cover-up goes clear up to the White House. All eventually works out.

"Mirror Mirror" by Stella Cameron. Lauren Taylor runs an answering service and is continually used by her ex. Jack Irving runs a family commercial greenhouse and someone is sabotaging it. Lauren is gun shy of "younger" man (2 years when you're 39?) and both have hang-ups from their first marriages. Turns out one of her employees is feeding info to the saboteur - a rival greenhouse family.

"Lover Stranger" by Amanda Stevens - man wakes up with amnesia, a gun shot wound and a dead body. Turns out to be a DEA agent under deep cover in Mexico who's unknowingly been given the facts of the doctor to cover his misdeeds. Didn't finish.
