Holding A Thug's Heart Captive 2 Jewelz

Now that Faheem and Janaya has been reunited, things just aren't how Faheem expected them to be. He didn't expect Janaya to come back engaged with a Fiancé. He thought it would finally get to be him and her. Although Pierre let her leave the city without him, he's still not letting her go out of her life. With the woman showing up Janaya's door. He may not have a choice.

When Janaya found out who her father was, she was shocked. She didn't know if she should believe him or not. She knew she was only going to be able to get the answers from one person and that was mama Renee but when she went to get those answers things didn't go as she planned for them to. She only made matters worse.

Faheem being offered the position of a life time was a shocker to him to go along with all the other info he found out that night about Vasquez being her father, before he accepted that position he wanted to make sure he secured that position in Nay's life secured first, but one person may not be willing to accept that and cause them trouble. Does Faheem have his own female problems to go along with the problems that Nay has with Pierre. Will Faheem and Nay be able to final test the waters and see if they could handle a relationship. Get all the answer's that you were looking for in part 1 here in part 2.

Alesia Russell says

Pierre/Dutch... Big Mad or What????

Love Janaya and Faheem together. Pierre should have listened to his father.... Now Faheem and Vasquez will be coming for his head!!

Mama Rene owes some answers... Mora and B need to quit playing!! Ryleigh, better get together and fast, Naya doesn't play about Heem!!!

That ending was a heart stopper...Lets see what happens next!!
