Cheryl says

This was cute and good to read to kids while they are doing Valentine's Day crafts.

P.S. Winn says

Oh my goodness, fun sweet rhyming book and grab it in time for Valentine's Day or just read anytime to bring some smiles into your life. The author uses delightful rhymes in a fun story about why Valentine's day is a great day to be enjoyed with the ones you love. This is another great book by a wonderful author who knows what kids love. I am amazed and delighted that this author also does her own illustrations, and they are great!

Kerry Reay says

Cute!!

Ahh what a lovely little way to explain valentines day to children. My little boy loved it, the pictures are fab

Laura says

Adorable

Cute little picture book. I like the family aspect. And that it encourages making Valentine's cards or gifts for family and friends.

Vincent says

Cute

This was a cute children's book and great for the season. Easy to read and on theme. I am sure we will read it again.

T. Okerberg says

Got this one for my niece....

....Who's one of my favourite little valentines ever! She's visiting this weekend, and she loves being read stories at bedtime. This was perfect!

Jasmine from How Useful It Is says

Read this book for my son as a bedtime story tonight. A little late to read about Valentines for us but this book is a cute read. It talks about giving love on Valentine's Day to family and friends. Each letter of the word Valentines has a love message. I like the different ways to make a heart like with your fingers and cutting out of paper. I like the attempt at making a heart with your toes even though it's harder than with your fingers. The illustrations are cute too. Highly recommended it. My son likes the book!

Jessi says

What in the world did I just read to my children? It's a blessing they are only 2 and 4 because they did not understand the major fail that this book was. It was extremely awkward - the rhyming occasionally did not rhyme and the topics often didn't flow. It was like jumping into 3 different books tossed into one. I felt that the author might have had a cute albeit short book, if she had stopped about 5 pages in.

Roses are red
Violets are blue
This book is cute.
Nevermind I lied.

If you think that poem sucked. Then don't read this book.

Betsy Nelson says

Simple, direct message for little minds

I was looking for a simple, short book to convey the meaning of Valentine's Day to my 3 and 5 year old grandsons before we prepared cards and gifts for family and their friends. This simple, rhyming, clearly illustrated book that both could relate to was perfect!

Shani says

This is a cute and quick read for little ones. I love the reminder of sharing love and affection to those you care about. Saying I love you or I care can come in so many different ways. Sally does an impeccable job of bringing quick lessons in her books that fit with the attention span of the age group. The illustrations are simple, but perfect! Cute book!

Judy says

Fun read

Great read for preschool thru 2nd grade. Both my 4 year old and 7 year old grandsons enjoyed this. Since it is time for Valentine handouts in his 1st grade class, the oldest really could relate to the story. Good illustrations also.

Courtney says

My children love these little books. They thoroughly enjoy each and every story, as if they are all unique and individual without any cause for similarity among them. Even though sometimes, they might seem tedious and repetitive to me as a parent, I do enjoy being able to read short-stories to my children that are clean and respectful.

Stacey says

Sally Huss' character show great joy as he makes and gives valentines to all his family and friends. Soft colored graphics and rhyming prose will appeal to children. This book also suggests some valentine ideas and wording at the end. Definitely "another happy book" by Sally Huss.

Carolyn Injoy says

Everybody Loves Valentines, Another Happy Book by Sally Huss is a brightly illustrated and fun to read children's book for ages two to eight. I gave it four stars.

"A is for 'Always.'
'Always is how long I will love you.' That's what each card will say."
