Forever Mia Darien

Every love story has two sides...

When Detective Vance Johnston was abducted, he entered a hell unlike any he'd ever known before, but the world outside didn't stop because he was there. What happened to the ones left behind? What hell did Sadie enter during the time he was missing without a clue as to what had happened to him?

This story is a "Between the Tales" short story set in the Adelheid Series world. It is set concurrently with the fifth Adelheid novel, "Disposable People."
