Brittany says

Loved this talk. As always. John Bytheway talks about how our attitudes affect our obedience. So good.

Erin says

john bytheway is soo funny!
I actually listened to it on my dads mp3!

---

Dawn Faber says

This is such a neat story. I have actually been able to see him give this talk and he put in the story so it comes to life more for me.

Maggie says

I listened to it as well~

Kristin says

Listened to this on CD with my kids. Awesome.

Danny Earll says

John Bytheway is by far the most influential and entertaining speaker I have listened to and read. I might not be active in the church, but I still love listening to him & remembering the messages he brings to life.

Jennifer Hughes says

A great talk, as usual, by John Bytheway. My teen loved it.

Part of my new Bytheway audio collection, I chose to listen to this talk this week (11/12/08) even though I knew it was run I listened to when I was about 14 or 15 years old. I didn't realize how much of this talk I remembered (various jokes and such). But there was plenty that I did not remember was in it. And as I have over the years made more personal connections with the prophets and characters of the Book of Mormon, the stories he shared meant so much more to me now than they did over 10 years ago.

One thing that I didn't realize, but which I needed a lot recently was his part of talking about "What is pure in heart?" This has been a question much on my mind and trying to apply it to myself. So I very much appreciated his part referring to that. The whole talk is great. I love these talks. So grateful I grew up with some of them--wish I could have had more. Wish I owned more, too!

Wendy says

I love anything John Bytheway because he gets my kids to listen. They enjoy the stories he tells and the way that he makes a point while using humour.
